Dad, you've been working hard in the garden all day. What are you growing?
Tired!

There are six pieces still to put into this puzzle, but only five gaps

Draw in the five pieces you need and find the one that's left over

Loving God

We give you thanks for the beautiful plants that grow in our gardens and fields, and for those plants that we'd rather not have in the garden—the weeds. You made them all. Amen
