Steve,

Thanks for your thoughtful note on my "new life." This week is my first and my key goal has been to meet everyone and begin to learn what this center is all about. Anyway, in my wanderings and discussions, several reps asked if I knew who you were. They spoke so highly of you--amazed that someone of your "rank" would take the time to wander around and talk to them.

It's an adjustment for me (obviously)--but I'm really going to like it. Some terrific people with many diverse and special talents.

Thanks again for keeping in touch.

Martha

I'm very sad that you will be leaving MCI. You have made a real contribution and have brought intelligence, grace and class wherever you have been.

Re Forum: If you feel comfortable about the Friday appearance, we would love to have you. If not we'll also be happy with Rick Calder.

Do you have any revealable news about your plans?
