January 9, 1981

IN REPLY REFER TO:

Mr. Steven Zecola
Common Carrier Bureau
Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C. 20554

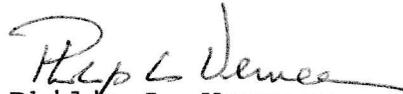

Dear Steve:

I would like to thank and commend you for your extraordinary efforts on behalf of the Common Carrier Bureau and the Commission during my tenure here.

During the last eighteen months, as previously, you have brought the highest level of professional ability and personal dedication to the agency's important work on behalf of communications consumers. Your policy insights and your ability at executing those insights in specific regulatory controversies has significantly advanced the well being of our country's communications consumers. Your efforts have reflected extremely well upon all of your contemporaries at the FCC. On behalf of all of those who have benefited from them, I am extremely grateful. My best personal wishes for continued success in the future.

I am asking the Director of Personnel to include a copy of this letter in the Official Personnel Folder.

Sincerely,

Philip L. Verveer
Chief, Common Carrier Bureau
