

Terms and Agreements for Empowerment EFT Trainings and Events

Information Related Terms:

Any information that Lori Lamont may provide is not to be considered medical or legal advice. Lori Lamont is not a licensed therapist, psychologist or health care practitioner.

Mentoring calls can be done both individually and in a group setting. Both meet EFTi requirements for maintaining EFT certification.

Group Mentoring Etiquette:

Each participant agrees to keep their cameras on throughout the call.

This is an interactive and community style group mentoring. In order to best support the group, each participant will share their own expertise and perspectives with respect and mindfulness to the amount of time spent with their share.

If a participant has an issue with another person in the group, they are to notify Lori privately.

Topics that can be discussed must be within the parameters of EFT and running an EFT business.

Confidentiality:

All participants are required to maintain confidentiality of all group mentoring participants.

Participants must modify any identifying details of case studies that they may be discussing in our mentoring call to protect the anonymity of all participants.

Lori Lamont reserves the right to describe the details of EFT Trainings and breakout rooms to her students, mentees, colleagues and mentors for training or supervision purposes only.

Mentoring Attendance:

If you will be requiring a certificate of attendance, it is your responsibility to notify Lori Lamont prior to the mentoring call.

Mentoring calls begin on time. All participants are expected to be ready to begin at the scheduled start time.

Group Mentoring Follow Up:

Each participant will be sent a group follow up email. If you do not want to be included in this group email you must notify Lori in advance.

Recording:

Group Mentoring: There is to be no recording of group mentoring.

Individual Mentoring: If a participant wants to have a recording of their individual mentoring call they must notify Lori in advance.

Cancellation Policy:

Under 24 Hours

- There are no refunds or rescheduling for cancelation under 24 hours

More than 24 Hours Notice

- Reschedule- In the event you cannot attend mentoring call and it is more than 24 hours prior to call, the simplest solution would be to reschedule at no charge using the link at the bottom of your confirmation or reminder email. Contact Lori with any questions
- Credit- You can apply the credit towards another service, class or event with Lori Lamont
- Refund- 50% refund available upon request.

Emergency- In the event of an emergency, please email Lori directly to go over your best options.
