

Privacy Policy for Voice Of You

Effective Date: June 4, 2026

Voice Of You ("we," "our," or "us") is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard your information when you use our Google Docs extension, Voice Of You.

1. Information We Collect

- Google Account Information: To enable user authentication, we use Google OAuth2 to access your basic profile information (such as your email address).
- Voice Recordings: The core functionality of our extension is to record audio comments. Audio files are processed securely to provide voice comment functionality within your Google Docs.
- Google Docs & Drive Access: We request permissions to insert and manage voice comments within your documents. We only access the specific documents you choose to use with the extension.

2. How We Use Your Information

- To provide, operate, and maintain the Voice Of You extension.
- To authenticate your account and manage your Monthly/Yearly premium subscription status via Stripe.
- To process your voice recordings and insert them as comment links inside your Google Docs.

3. Data Security and Third-Party Sharing

We do not sell, trade, or rent your personal data to third parties. We share data only with trusted service providers necessary for the extension's operation:

- Google Cloud Platform: For hosting backend infrastructure and managing OAuth authentication.
- Stripe: For secure payment and subscription processing. We do not store or see your credit card details.

4. Your Rights and Choices

You can revoke the extension's access to your Google Account at any time through your Google Account Security settings. If you choose to delete your account, your data will be permanently removed from our active databases.
