The Roger Aldrich Valedictorian Award was created in memory of a beloved, and very prominent member of the Sugar Hill Community.

Roger was one of the principal founders of Sugar Hill when it became founded as a separate town in 1962. He was a Selectman and Town Moderator for many years. He and his wife, Nancy, owned and operated Polly's Pancake Parlor until their daughter and son-in-law, Kathie and Dennis Cote, took over managing the family business. Roger also wrote a number of informative books on local history, adding to the significant contributions he made to the Sugar Hill community.

The Willing Workers Society of Sugar Hill is pleased to present the 2023 Roger Aldrich Valedictorian Award to your class Valedictorian..... Sam Jacobs. Congratulations Sam!
