September 25, 2019

Dear children! Today I am calling you to pray for my intentions so that I may help you.

Little children, pray the Rosary and meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary because, in your life, you are also passing through joys and sorrows.

In this way, you are transforming the mysteries into your life, because life is a mystery until you place it into God’s hands.

In this way, you will have the experience of faith like Peter who met Jesus and the Holy Spirit filled his heart.

Little children, you are also called to witness by living the love with which, day by day, God wraps you with my presence.

Therefore, little children, be open and pray with the heart in faith.

Thank you for having responded to my call.

October 25, 2019

Dear children!

Today I call you to prayer.

May prayer be a balm to your soul, because the fruit of prayer is joy, giving and witnessing God to others - through your life.

Little children, in complete surrender to God, He will take care of everything and will bless you; and your sacrifices will have meaning.

I am with you and bless all of you with my motherly blessing.

Thank you for having responded to my call.
Dear Readers and Members, remember I let you all know that it cost us $9,000.00 a year to publish the monthly newsletter. Well, since we have had a dip in donations and have experienced some health problems with some of our key volunteers, we felt that the “hand writing was on the wall.” Rather than stop the newsletter completely, we’ve decided to publish it by-monthly, for now. That is, until things get better, we pray.

The reason we are behind schedule is because of major health problems and surgeries that affected our main volunteers. Thank you for understanding. We depend on you to keep this ministry going. Without YOU, we are nothing. This ministry is for YOU, because of YOU. If you can send in a donation on a monthly basis, it would surely help. If anyone has any ideas for a fundraiser, that would greatly increase our income, we are all ears.

But, if you have a good idea that will work for us, you have to be willing to come in and implement it and be the chair person for it.

"Rosary Mysteries are Meditation Tools!"

Mary, Our Mother, rev to live with awareness of the mysteries in our lives and around us.

Let us pray the Rosary and meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary. To do this, we need to find a quiet space without distractions and very little noise...and music, television, or smart phones. Meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary can reveal mysteries in our life that compare to Mary’s and Jesus’ life and suffering.

Mary says, "You are transforming the mysteries in your life because life is a mystery until you place it in God’s Hands." We will be, like Peter, by faith in Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit. Your heart can be filled like his. Mary invites us to witness by living the love which, day in and day out, Mary comes to us by God’s and Jesus’ favor, wrapping you with her presence. This comes about when we share the joy and peace we feel. This relationship will transform and attract friends, family and strangers to want to know Mary, our Mother, and Jesus, Our Lord. Our enthusiasm and praying will attract others to want to experience, that heart and faith, and want so much to reach out in love to evangelize.

Witnessing and evangelizing the faith is as easy as falling in love in the mysteries of Mary’s joy, which so powerfully wants to reveal the mystery of God’s love to and for us all!!!

Amen.

Love, Fr. Al

Meditation on the SEPTEMBER 25, 2019
by Fr. Al Bermudez, OSSM

"Prayer Is Th Balm To Our Soul!"

Mary, Our Heavenly and Loving Mother, continues to bless us, her fickle and erring children. She knows that we are weak.

She knows that some of us have received special blessings. She wants us to share the knowledge of these blessings with others. We are all her children. What she does for one, she will do for everyone.

We must not be afraid to speak about our little blessings or "Crumbs form Heaven," as I like to call them. The evil one would tell us, ‘they will all laugh at you,’ just to keep you from sharing your experiences with others. The little gifts we receive come from prayer, cause us to completely surrender to God. Suddenly, things that have caused us so much stress, in the past, we can handle now, because God has become a part of our everyday life.

Again and again Mother Mary reminds us to pray, because "prayer, is the balm to your soul..."

We will be joyful and have peace, that only God can give!!!

Amen.

Love, Fr. Al

September 2, 2019 Message to Mirjana D. Soldo
For Non-believers: those who have not come to know the Lord.

"Dear children, my words are simple but are filled with motherly love and care. My children, all the more the shadows of darkness and deception are being cast over you, and I am calling you to the light and truth—I am calling you to my Son. Only He can transform despair and suffering into peace and clarity; only He can give hope in the deepest pain. My Son is the life of the world. The more that you come to know Him—the more that you come close to Him—all the more you will love Him, because my Son is love. Love changes everything; it makes most beautiful also that which, without love, seems insignificant to you. That is why, anew, I am saying to you that you must love a lot if you desire to grow spiritually. I know, apostles of my love, that it is not always easy, but, my children, also the painful paths are paths which lead to spiritual growth, to faith, and to my Son. My children, pray—think of my Son. In all the moments of the day, raise your soul to Him, and I will gather your prayers as flowers from the most beautiful garden and give them as a gift to my Son. Be true apostles of my love; spread the love of my Son to everyone. Be gardens of the most beautiful flowers. With your prayers help your shepherds that they may be spiritual fathers filled with love for all people. Thank you."

October 2, 2019 Message to Mirjana D. Soldo
For Non-believers: those who have not come to know the Lord.

"Dear children, pray! Pray the Rosary everyday—that wreath of flowers which, as a mother, directly connects me with your pains, sufferings, desires, and hopes. Apostles of my love, I am with you through the grace and the love of my Son, and I am asking for your prayers. The world is in such need of your prayers for souls to be converted. With complete trust, open your hearts to my Son, and in them He will inscribe the summary of His words—which is love. Live in an unbreakable connection with the Most Sacred Heart of my Son. My children, as a mother, I am telling you that it is high time for you to kneel before my Son to acknowledge Him as your God, the center of your life. Offer gifts to Him—that which He most loves—which is love towards neighbor, mercy, and pure hearts. Apostles of my love, many of my children still don not acknowledge my Son as their God; they havenot yet come to know His love. But you, with your prayers pronounced from a pure and open heart, by the gifts which you offer to my Son, will make even the hardest hearts open. Apostles of my love, the strength of prayer pronounced from the heart—apowerful prayer full of love—changes the world. Therefore, my children: pray, pray, pray. I am with you. Thank you."

We will be working on bus pilgrimages for the coming year. So, be on the lookout for some special trips.

We wrote earlier, about health issues, here at Mary’s Helpers.

We wrote earlier about the health issues of the volunteers here at Mary’s. If you have been reading our newsletter, you also saw the many, many deaths that have occurred over the years. An entire generation. Added to that, Fr. Al’s father passed away. He was living in Orlando, Florida, at the time of his death. So, Fr. Al was called away to bury his dad. Fr. Al always talked about living everywhere, because his dad had a military career.

I know that I mentioned this before, but we have lost a whole generation. This first ones to answer the call of Our Lady in Medjugorje. Remember? Everyone in this area wanted to go. We wanted to be in that number, “when the saints go marching in!”

Mary is bringing her faithful servants home, those who knew she was coming back fully into recognition.

There are Rosary groups everywhere. I even heard of a group called “Wine and the Rosary,” where a group of friends get together in the afternoon to share a glass of wine, and include the Rosary. I’m so proud of them. Any excuse to pray the Rosary is good enough for me.

I know of an instance, where a Baptist lady learned all about Catholics, and that lady, not only becoming Catholic, but that meager experience, contributed to her to pray for us. We didn’t pray to her. She and I, along with a gentleman from Metairie, were walking together, as we were leaving the Priory church, when we were called over to a private altar by one of the monks. He wanted to share a blessing with us, which we could share with the other members of our bus group. All three of us did that when we got back on the bus and headed to our motel.

We noticed that the monk was bent in two. Several of the monks were also in that condition. When we asked about it, we were told that they all hurt there backs, when they built the monastery. The monks actually built their own monastery.

That meager experience, contributed to that lady, not only becoming Catholic, but of starting a healing ministry on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, which continued for many years. She wrote a book of the messages she received. We have them at Mary’s Helpers for $3.00 each.

Of course, we became friends and still keep in touch.

The Rosary is powerful! The Rosary is a powerful weapon to fight evil. Mary says it often in her monthly messages. The Rosary is the chain that will bind satan.

So, pray the Rosary!

Read the lives of the SAINTS! This is not fiction. It is the truth.

Everyday, at noon prayer, we read the lives of the saint of the day. We have a very old book that Margaret had had for years. The book has a brief story on the life of each saint. If one finds a particular saint especially interesting, they can find a book dedicated to just that saint. There are many of those.

There are saints in there whom we never heard of before. Some of them, we cannot even pronounce their names. Many are no longer listed on the calendar of saints. Many were forgotten and removed to make room for all the new saints, St. Pope John Paul II was declaring.

I’ve read the lives of the saints since I first learned to read. Their lives are examples for us to live by. Imitate them and their lives.

God Bless!

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

ask St. Sharbel’s intercession. She told St. Sharbel the night before the procedure. When she awoke in the morning she was surprised that there was no sign of coli nus. The night before the colonoscopy, October 22, she saw St. Sharbel in her dream digging and withdrawing his hands in her belly for three consecutive times. She had excruciating pain each time he dug his hands in her belly. When she awoke in the morning she did not tell anyone about the dream. When the doctor performed the colonoscopy he was surprised that there was no sign of colitis. He told her to thank God for the cure. She then told him about the dream of St. Sharbel the night before the procedure. On April 2, 2019, Janet Zabita visited St. Sharbel in Anaya to thank him for the grace of healing and brought with her the medical records to register the miracle.

at times more philosophical than evangelical. All this demands on the part of the evangelizer certain attitudes which foster openness to the message: approachability, readiness for dialogue, patience, a warmth and welcome which is non-judgmental.

166. Another aspect of catechesis which has developed in recent decades is mystagogic initiation. This basically has to do with two things: a progressive experience of formation involving the entire community and a renewed appreciation of the liturgical signs of Christian initiation. Many manuals and programmes have not yet taken sufficiently into account the need for a mystagogical renewal, one which would assume very different forms based on each educational community’s discernment. Catechesis is a proclamation of the word and is always centred on that word, yet it also demands a suitable environment and an attractive presentation, the use of eloquent symbols, insertion into a broader growth process and the integration of every dimension of the person within a communal journey of hearing and response.

167. Every form of catechesis would do well to attend to the “way of beauty” (via pulchritudinis). Proclaiming Christ means showing that to believe in and to follow him is not only something right and true, but also something beautiful, capable of filling life with new splendour and profound joy, even in the midst of difficulties. Every expression of true beauty can thus be acknowledged as a path leading to an encounter with the Lord Jesus. This has nothing to do with fostering an aesthetic relativism which would downplay the inseparable bond between truth, goodness and beauty, but rather a renewed esteem for beauty as a means of touching the human heart and enabling the truth and goodness of the Risen Christ to radiate within it.

We have been writing about St. Sharbel for over a year now, ever since we first introduced him to you by Fr. Charbel and Margaret Bieser on our radio program. Several readers have contacted us that they feel St. Sharbel is a real close friend and that they feel that they know him on a personal level.

We helped stir up a lot of activity for him.

Witnesses of Those Who have Had Experiences While Praying Before this Image!

On MARCH 17, 2003, St. Patrick’s Day, the 7th Anniversary, a crowd of about 250 people looked on in awe as they watched the MIRACLE of the SUN in full view beyond the trees. Everyone present witnessed the phenomena. Mary’s Helpers Conference of JULY 2003 was Centered Around this image of Our Lady & her message, “Just Have Faith in My Son Jesus.”

The 35th - Margaret Troscalir, Lafitte, La.
Part 2

After I got Harold settled in the emergency room, I went to put his clothes in the car. That’s when I discovered Mother Mary’s picture was still in my trunk. This time it was wrapped as a gift. I brought it in and tore the Christmas paper off. I stood it up on a big flat top sheet pillow. The male nurse told me I couldn’t keep it there because the pillow is used a lot. I found another place where she would be looking down directly to the front of Harold instead of the back. He and I prayed like we never prayed before.

Then the x-rays began. I hadn’t phoned any family yet, I was waiting till I had some information. My daughter is expecting her second child next month, so many in the family are ill, I did not want to excite or worry anybody. We’d arrived at about 6:30 p.m., by 7:30 p.m. I decided to call Gayle to tell her what happened. Gayle asked if anyone was with me. When I said, “No one,” she said, “Margaret, you have to tell Lori, she’ll be more upset if you don’t.” I asked Gayle to call my son-in-law first, then let everyone else know. After I hung up the phone, I went back to where Harold was. He was in so much pain, I decided to phone Lori myself, but Gayle had already done that, so I called Jane, Harold’s sister. She waited until the next day to see him, since she had been helping all the other sick relatives. Harold was treated with anti-biotics to stop any infection, then more x-rays, anti-biotics and pain medication.

Harold’s good friend and fishing buddy, Val, was a blessing to me. He came to relieve me so I could go home to rest. I had not had any sleep for 48 hours.

Thanks to Mary’s Helpers, the Servite prayerline for all the prayers and through Our Lady of Compassionate Protection, Harold was released from the hospital, Friday, January 24th, our 49th wedding anniversary, without having to have surgery. The 37th - Linda Danos, Raceland, La.

In January 1998, when I had my yearly mammogram it was discovered that an irregular lump was found in my left breast. On March 16, 1998 I had a biopsy done and the results came back as cancer. I returned to surgery on March 25 and they did a partial mastectomy with a lymphectomy. From May to July I had 35 treatments of radiation. After regular check up I was clear of the cancer. I continued to have yearly mammograms. In December 2002 another lump was discovered a quarter of an inch from the previous one. The doctor recommended that it be taken out immediately. The surgery was scheduled for June 14th. On December 17th, we came to the Mass here at Saia’s and Louis said a Rosary for cancer patients. It really touched me that night. Also Benediction was for those there with cancer and I went up to receive the blessing.

My husband and I said the Rosary in front of the Blessed Mother’s picture at home. He asked that they wouldn’t find the lump to be cancer and for a sign.

The surgery was performed on the 14th of January and we came to the Mass on the 17th. Louis said the Rosary again for cancer patients. Well, I went for the results of the biopsy and it wasn’t cancer, just fatty tissue.

If you remember, it was very cold on the 17th and the next few days. The Sunday when returning from Mass on the 19th, there on one of the four rose bushes I have, was a very large pink rose next to the window closest to where I sleep. My husband said that’s a sign that he had asked for, because the rose bushes have not bloomed since Christmas and haven’t bloomed since that day. Thank you Jesus and Blessed Mother.

St. Patrick’s Day

The crowd of about 250 people looked on in awe as they watched the MIRACLE of the SUN in full view beyond the trees. Everyone present witnessed the phenomena just as had been observed in Marian sites observed in Marian sites around the world.

The 38th - W. A. Jacomino, Sulfur, La.

My wife and I had the pleasure of having one of the pictures of “Our Lady of Compassionate Protection” in our home from May 27, 2002. Our primary reason was to pray for one of my wife’s friends. This lovely lady had been diagnosed with cancer. All indications were that it was wide spread throughout her body. No one spoke about it clearly, but everyone knew that her time in this world would be short and all the treatments and medicine would not make her better. She was on a path to great pain and discomfort with not too much hope. We prayed one or two Rosaries, once we did three each day in front of the picture.

My wife never told me until after the picture had been returned to Mary’s Helpers that when we prayed, my wife felt she could see Our Lady praying with us. Our Lady’s lips would move. During one of these Rosaries my wife stated she thought she saw lights flash around Our Lady as we prayed. For myself, I never saw anything. However, I was very glad to have the picture near, because it is a beautiful work of art.

Part 2 of #38, next newsletter

When I returned the large picture, I purchased a smaller one and had it blessed and framed. My wife and I continued to pray a Rosary or two a day. Usually, only one was said Continued on page 8
Mensajé De Nuestra Señora 25 de Septiembre, 2019

¡Queridos hijos! Hoy los invito a orar por mis intenciones a fin de que los pueda ayudar. Hijitos, recen el Rosario y mediten los misterios del Rosario, porque también ustedes en su vida atraviesan por alegrías y tristezas.

De ese modo, convierten los misterios en su vida, porque la vida es un misterio hasta que no la ponen en las manos de Dios.

Así tendrán la experiencia de la fe, como cuando Pedro encontró a Jesús, y el Espíritu Santo le llenó su corazón.

También ustedes, hijitos, están llamados a testimoniar viviendo el amor con que Dios los envuelve día a día con mi presencia.

Por eso, hijitos, sean abiertos y oren con el corazón en la fe.

¡Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado!

Mensajé De Nuestra Señora 25 de Octubre, 2019

¡Queridos hijos!

Hoy les invito a la oración. Que la oración sea un bálsamo para su alma, porque el fruto de la oración es la alegría, es dar, es testimoniar a Dios a través de sus vidas.

Hijitos, al entregarse ustedes totalmente a Dios, Él se ocupará de todo y los bendecirá, y sus sacrificios tendrán sentido.

Estoy con ustedes y los bendigo a todos con mi bendición maternal.

¡Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado!
