“Dear children! In this peaceless time in which the devil is harvesting souls to draw them to himself, I am calling you to persevering prayer, so that in prayer you discover the God of love and hope. Little children, take the Cross in your hands. May it be your encouragement for love to always win, in a special way now when the Cross and faith are rejected. You be a reflection and an example with your lives that faith and hope are still alive and a new world of peace is possible. I am with you and intercede for you before my Son, Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

“Dear children! This is a time of grace. I am with you and anew am calling you, little children: return to God and to prayer until prayer will be a joy for you. Little children, you do not have a future or peace until your life begins with a personal conversion and a change to the good. Evil will cease and peace will begin to reign in your hearts and in the world. Therefore, little children, pray, pray, pray. I am with you and intercede before my Son Jesus for each of you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Meditation on the JULY 25, 2020 Message by Fr. Al Bermudez, OSSM

"Mary's Solution for a Peaceless Time"

Mary is well aware of our human condition (and time). She expresses it "as a peaceless time, when the devil is well at work harvesting souls, drawing them to himself". Such attractions as love of money, love of self, love of entertainment, social gatherings, being honored by other workers and politicians.

Mary's solution begins with persevering prayer that will lead us to discover the God of love and hope. "Little Children, take the cross in your hands. May it be your encouragement for love to always win, in a special way now when the cross and faith are rejected."

Mary wants us to know that her son Jesus is the solution that will strengthen our peace through prayer. We need to witness that our lives have faith and hope, which is still real and show our new world that peace is possible!!

Let us listen to Mary's Prayer.

Amen and God Bless Love, Father AL

Meditation on the AUGUST 25, 2020 Message by Fr. Al Bermudez, OSSM

"No Future or Peace without conversion"

We get so used to hearing, "This is a time of grace. Pray, Pray, Pray" But Mary knows that all this repetition, despite risk, is necessary. It gets us to listen to the real meaning of all of our spiritual prayers and our purpose in order to get us closer and be more intimate to Jesus. We need to let grace teach us joy, as we become closer to Jesus. This grace in Jesus is going to open the door, by means of prayer, so we can find peace and joy in our lives. Opening the door here on earth is only the beginning for us. Our real reward is in heaven. Mary says, "Little children, we do not have a future or peace until your life begins with personal conversion and a change to the good", committing to this new life with Jesus' reign in our hearts. Therefore little children, PRAY! PRAY! PRAY! Mary leads the way to her son Jesus. Mary is the tabernacle TO Jesus. She is the means of grace that leads to the saints and mother church, that is to the eternal peace of joy and heaven.

Let us listen to Mary and head her warning. Love, Father AL

Let us pray for our beloved Father Al Bermudez. Like so many priest, he has given his life to Jesus and Mary. He needs our prayer right now for his own health issues he is fighting. May God be with him in his time of difficulty.

Sister Dede Byrne's Speech AT RNC

Good evening. I am Sister Dede Byrne, and I belong to the Community of the Little Workers of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

Last Fourth of July, I was honored to be one of the president's guests at his Salute to America celebration. I must confess that I recently prayed while in chapel, begging God to allow me to be a voice, an instrument for human life. And now here I am, speaking at the Republican National Convention. I guess you'd better be careful what you pray for.

My journey to religious life was not a traditional route, if there is such a thing. In 1978, as a medical school student at Georgetown University, I joined the Army to help pay for my tuition, and ended up devoting 29 years to the military, serving as a doctor and a surgeon in places like Afghanistan and Egypt's Sinai Peninsula. After much prayer and contemplation, I entered my religious order in 2002, working to serve the poor and the sick in Haiti, Sudan, Kenya, Iraq and in Washington, D.C.

Humility is at the foundation of our order, which makes it very difficult to talk about myself. But I can speak about my experience working for those fleeing war-torn and impoverished countries all around the world. Those refugees all share a common experience. They have all been marginalized, viewed as insignificant, powerless and voiceless.

And while we tend to think of the marginalized as living beyond our borders, the truth is the largest marginalized group in the world can be found here in the United States. They are the unborn.

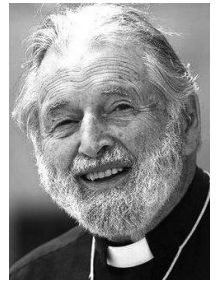

As Christians, we first met Jesus as a stirring embryo in the womb of an unwed mother and saw him born nine months later in the poverty of the cave. It is no coincidence that Jesus stood up for what was just and was ultimately crucified because what he said was not politically correct or fashionable. As followers of Christ, we are called to stand up for life against the politically correct or fashionable of today.

We must fight against a legislative agenda that supports and even celebrates destroying life in the womb. Keep in mind, the laws we create define how we see our humanity. We must ask ourselves: What we are saying when we go into a womb and snuff out an innocent, powerless, voiceless life?

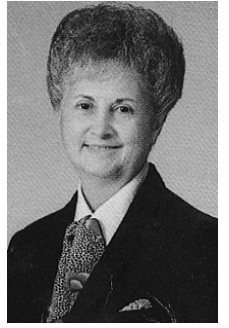

As a physician, I can say without hesitation: Life begins at conception. While what I have to say may be difficult for some to hear, I am saying it because I am not just pro-life, I am pro-eternal life. I want all of us to end up in heaven together someday.

Which brings me to why I am here today. Donald Trump is the most pro-life president this nation has ever had, defending life at all stages. His belief in the sanctity of life transcends politics. President Trump will stand up against Biden/Harris, who are the most anti-life presidential ticket ever, even supporting the horrors of late-term abortion and infanticide. Because of his courage and conviction, President Trump has earned the support of America's pro-life community. Moreover, he has a nationwide of religious standing behind him. You'll find us here with our weapon of choice, the rosary. Thank you, Mr. President, we are all praying for you.

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY PRAY the ROSARY EVERY DAY to obtain peace for the world and the end to the war.

From The Desk of FATHER PAUL BERGERON

How many of us have stepped into a bakery or supermarket and smelled the fresh baked French Bread. No matter where we are in the supermarket, we follow that aromatic invisible finger that leads us to where it is. It is truly something that is hard to resist as we rush home with the bread still hot to put every kind of tasty ingredient possible for the great Poboy sandwich. As great and good as it sounds, Our Lord said that "man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from The Mouth of God". He is The One Who unlike the bread that tempts us, gives us that freedom to choose what is good and morally right, the things that will all lead us to Eternal Life. Let us invest, while here on earth, in our lives that are important to God. I'm speaking about everything spiritual here. There is no material thing here that will assure us of a place in Heaven when we die—not money; education; the clothes we wear; the house we live in; what our last name is or the kind of car we drive. With our beautiful faith comes with it devotions, religious practices and The Seven Sacraments, along with The Holy Rosary and The Beatitudes and Ten Commandments, that if lived, can assure us a place at The Lord's Heavenly Table. I will still go for that fresh baked French Bread but more so for what Almighty God has whipped up for me! Bon Appetite.

OCTOBER MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY- PUBLIC ROSARY- OCTOBER 10 NOON - HOUMA, LA

Dear Friends - Facing the corona virus crisis, social upheaval and the sins of abortion, homosexuality, Satanism and the growing rate of drug addiction and suicide among young people. Our nation desperately needs a supernatural solution. The solution was given by the Blessed Mother at Fatima in 1917 when She told people to pray the rosary for world peace. There will be a PUBLIC ROSARY AT NOON OCTOBER 10th AT THE TOWN HALL IN HOUMA. The address is 805 Barrow St, Houma, LA. This date is closest to the day the sun danced at Fatima, Portugal for the world to know the truth and urgency of Our Lady's message. By saying a public rosary, your soul will grow in faith, hope and charity. SEE YOU THERE!

HOUMA SKY PULSATING by Marilyn Bourgeois

On Monday, November 17, 2003, two friends and I attended a gathering on the Saia property in Houma, Louisiana. After praying the Mother of Sorrow Chaplet in the Chapel, we were greeted outside by a minister who proceeded to tell us of the many miracles he had witnessed since they erected the cross on the property.

My friend Lorraine asked him to pray over me because of my many ailments I have been suffering lately. As he was praying on me, I was slain in the spirit. Next he prayed over Lorraine and Larry and that's when I noticed the sky. First, the sun began to pulsate and different colors were streaming from it. The clouds were constantly moving rapidly across the sky, while beautiful colors emerged from them. We sat there in amazement for three hours and watched the spectacular show.

We decided to pray a rosary and we noticed that every time we said a Hail Mary, visions of roses rose toward the sky. Afterward, Father Paul Bergeron blessed the cross and the Cross and the Way of the Cross. Mr. Saia told about the shrine he built to the Blessed Mother. We said another Rosary and had a beautiful Mass ending with the Benediction.

On the way home, we asked a gentleman to lead us out of Houma because it was very dark and I was not sure of the way. My friend Lorraine noticed that his brake lights were shining up towards the sky and so were the oncoming cars. This continued until we were out of Houma, then the other cars' lights were shining straight. I think Our Lady did this to lead us home safely. This was truly the most beautiful and amazing day of my life.

LABOR DAY PRAYER - Build up in the leaders of our country a respect for all labors. Deliver us, Lord Jesus, from the maligning evils of greed, sloth, and gluttony that we may lead lives of holiness in service to you and our neighbor. We ask all these things for our good and your glory. AMEN

CHAPTER THREE

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL

183. Consequently, no one can demand that religion should be relegated to the inner sanctum of personal life, without influence on societal and national life, without concern for the soundness of civil institutions, without a right to offer an opinion on events affecting society. Who would claim to lock up in a church and silence the message of St. Francis of Assisi or Blessed Teresa of Calcutta? They themselves would have found this unacceptable. An authentic faith—which is never comfortable or completely personal—always involves a deep desire to change the world, to transmit values, to leave this earth somehow better than we found it. We love this magnificent planet on which God has put us, and we love the human family which dwells here, with all its tragedies and struggles, its hopes and aspirations, its strengths and weaknesses. The earth is our common home and all of us are brothers and sisters. If indeed “the just ordering of society and of the state is a central responsibility of politics”, the Church “cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice” [150] All Christians, their pastors included, are called to show concern for the building of a better world. This is essential, for the Church’s social thought is primarily positive: it offers proposals, it works for change and in this sense it constantly points to the hope born of the loving heart of Jesus Christ. At the same time, it unites “its own commitment to that made in the social field by other Churches and Ecclesial Communities, whether at the level of doctrinal reflection or at the practical level”.[151]

184. This is not the time or the place to examine in detail the many grave social questions affecting today’s world, some of which I have dealt with in the second chapter. This Exhortation is not a social document, and for reflection on those different themes we have a most suitable tool in the Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church, whose use and study I heartily recommend. Furthermore, neither the Pope nor the Church have a monopoly on the interpretation of social realities or the proposal of solutions to contemporary problems. Here I can repeat the insightful observation of Pope Paul VI: “In the face of such widely varying situations, it is difficult for us to utter a unified message and to put forward a solution which has universal validity. This is not our ambition, nor is it our mission. It is up to the Christian communities to analyze with objectivity the situation which is proper to their own country”.[152]

185. In what follows I intend to concentrate on two great issues which strike me as fundamental at this time in history. I will treat them more fully because I believe that they will shape the future of humanity. These issues are first, the inclusion of the poor in society, and second, peace and social dialogue.

II. The inclusion of the poor in society

186. Our faith in Christ, who became poor, and was always close to the poor and the outcast, is the basis of our concern for the integral development of society’s most neglected members.

In union with God, we hear a plea

187. Each individual Christian and every community is called to be an instrument of God for the liberation and promotion of the poor, and for enabling them to be fully a part of society. This demands that we be docile and attentive to the cry of the poor and to come to their aid. A mere glance at the Scriptures is enough to make us see how our gracious Father wants to hear the cry of the poor: “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them... so I will send you...” (Ex 3:7-8, 10). We also see how he is concerned for their needs: “When the Israelites cried out to the Lord, the Lord raised up for them a deliverer” (Jg 3:15). If we, who are God’s means of hearing the poor, turn deaf ears to this plea, we oppose the Father’s will and his plan; that poor person “might cry to the Lord against you, and you would incur guilt” (Dt 15:9). A lack of solidarity towards his or her needs will directly affect our relationship with God: “For in bitterness of soul he calls down a curse upon you, his Creator will hear his prayer” (Sir 4:6). The old question always returns: “How does God’s love abide in anyone who has the world’s goods, and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?” (1 Jn 3:17). Let us recall also how bluntly the apostle James speaks of the cry of the oppressed: “The wages of the labourers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts” (5:4).

188. The Church has realized that the need to heed this plea is itself born of the liberating action of grace within each of us, and thus it is not a question of a mission reserved only to a few: “The Church, guided by the Gospel of mercy and by love for mankind, hears the cry for justice and intends to respond to it with all her might”.[153] In this context we can understand Jesus’ command to his disciples: “You yourselves give them something to eat!” (Mk 6:37): it means working to eliminate the structural causes of poverty and to promote the integral development of the poor, as well as small daily acts of solidarity in meeting the real needs which we encounter. The word “solidarity” is a little worn and at times poorly understood, but it refers to something more than a few sporadic acts of generosity. It presumes the creation of a new mindset which thinks in terms of community and the priority of the life of all over the appropriation of goods by a few. Part 48 Next Month

Our Blessed Mother’s Receipte
From Elsie Schexnayder

Our Blessed Mother told Brother Joseph Francis in October 1986, that Our Lord will soon send a flu-like illness that will cause many, many deaths. This illness will affect the lungs and the heart. Our Loving Mother gave us this advice.

Crush 1/2 large fresh garlic clove and several slices of fresh ginger root in a cup. Add 1T. of lemon juice and 1t of honey in the cup. Pour boiling water into the cup and let the mixture set for at least 5 minutes. DO NOT BOIL. We are to begin drinking this drink every day, about one hour before bedtime. If one already has the symptoms, they are to drink a cup of this 3 times a day.

A garlic pill or capsule may be substituted if one cannot take fresh garlic. If there is an aftertaste or garlic breath, one should eat a few sprigs of fresh parsley.

This counsel is from the Mother of the Divine Physician. May Our Lord Bless you and Our Lady, Health of the Sick Protect You.

Please let others know of this advice.

SAINT Charbel

By Ben Broussard Source: Crusade
The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree.
He shall grow like a cedar of Lebanon. (Ps. 91:13)

The Wonder Worker of Lebanon

A LIGHT FROM THE MOUNTAINS

Following the funeral rites, Charbel's fellow monks carried his body to his tomb. As was the custom, his body was placed in a tomb in the monastery cemetery with no embalming and no coffin. For the last time Father Charbel was clothed in his monastic habit. The heavy snows of winter made the burial difficult for his brother monks.

The holy hermit thus lay forgotten by the world. But God's eyes were ever on His servant.

A short time after his burial, his fellow monks and nearby villagers noticed an extraordinary light coming from his tomb. The light shone for 45 days, and word quickly spread near and far. The monks soon sought ecclesiastical permission to exhume the body. This was done in the spring of 1899, four months after Charbel's death.

Frequent rains had flooded the cemetery several times, but the body was found completely incorrupt. The newly-opened tomb revealed the peaceful remains of Father Charbel floating on mud in a flooded grave.

The monks of Annaya carefully cleansed and reclothed the body which remained flexible with no signs of decay. Father Charbel's remains were transferred to a wooden coffin, this time in a corner of a private chapel in the monastery.

Another unusual occurrence came with exhuming Father Charbel's body. A liquid described as a mixture of sweat and blood issued from the body's pores. As a result, the bloodstained clothing on the relics of this holy hermit needed to be changed twice a week. Pieces of cloth soaked in this liquid were given to those who approached Father Charbel with their petitions. News spread of numerous cures and healings.

From an early age Father Charbel felt the call to greater solitude. He sought permission many times from his superior to move to a nearby hermitage. But Father Charbel was very useful to the community. His superior did not want to give permission, and so continued to delay Charbel's request.

After serving for 16 years as a priest in the monastery, divine intervention would obtain the desired permission for him. Again Father Charbel asked his superior for permission to become a hermit. His superior again deferred, asking Father Charbel to study a matter of some urgency. His superior gave him permission to stay up past the usual hour to finish the task.

Father Charbel went to the kitchen of the monastery to acquire oil for his lamp. The servant, wanting to mock this sacred monk, filled the lamp with water. Father Charbel, absorbed in devout contemplation, did not perceive the prank and returned to his cell. Immediately Father Charbel returned to his prayers, and lit the water-filled lamp with ease. The servant, looking on, watched in awe as he saw the holy monk miraculously burning water. He called the superior of the monastery. The abbot stared wide-eyed at the bright lamp burning water for fuel, and could only exclaim, "Father Charbel, pray for me!"

Word of this miracle reached the Superior General of the Maronite Order. He authorized Father Charbel to take up residence at the hermitage of Saints Peter and Paul close to the monastery.

From 1875 to his death, Father Charbel lived the secluded life of a hermit. He always held himself to the strictest discipline and would undergo strict penances and fasting. At over 5,000 feet above sea level, the hermitage provided little shelter from the harsh winter or the heat of summer. Father Charbel kept a hairshirt hidden beneath his habit. With little food and deprived of every comfort, Father Charbel was the happiest man on earth. Our Lord Jesus Christ became his strength and his joy, his only reason for being.

Father Charbel daily offered Holy Mass in the seclusion of his hermitage. He would spend hours afterward in thanksgiving. For 23 years, his offering the Divine Liturgy in the sacred mountain hermitage called down the blessings of heaven on him, his country, the Church and the world. Those who assisted always said the same about him: his voice was low, but his face shone with an interior joy. His deep union with His Divine Master radiated in every word and action.

Father Charbel's obedience became legendary, his angelic chastity encompassing his whole being, and his poverty going to extremes not reached by many other saints.

In December of 1898 while offering Holy Mass, Father Charbel suffered a stroke. The servant assisting him had to pry the Sacred Host from his hands. Just seven days later on Christmas Eve, he passed into eternity.

Saint of Miracles - Part 21

Recent Documented Miracle

The testimony in the following miracle involves miracle after St. Sharbel Feast Day

Mrs. Marilyn Joseph Fakhoury was born in Zahle in 1959, married to Antoine Michel Khairallah and they have one son. She tells about her health condition. "In June, I felt an ache in my stomach, and I went to St George Hospital in Beirut to seek a consultation with Dr. Salem Khoury. He put me on a gastroscope and took a biopsy. He found that I had stomach bacteria with cancer." So I had anti-bacteria treatments for 14 days to get rid of it. After five months, I underwent another biopsy, and the bacteria had disappeared completely from my stomach, but the cancer was still there. I prayed a lot to Saint Sharbel asking for his intercession with the Lord Jesus Christ. My only medication in this difficult stage was Saint Sharbel's oil, so I used that and applied it daily on my stomach. After six months, I underwent a biopsy on May 7, 2019, and it was found that the cancer decreased from stage five to stage one. On May 5, 2020, I underwent another transplant biopsy and they found I was completely recovered from cancer. "I went with my husband to the Monastery of Saint Sharbel. We thanked him and recorded the miracle with the entire medical report on June 18, 2020.

Second Miracle: Regarding a brain Surgery where St Sharbel operated on woman called Valerie Khoury. The final MRI a cross appeared in place of the tumor...

Valérie Dominique El Khoury native of 1992, from Beirut..

On November 19, 2016, while teaching dance classes, Valérie suddenly lost consciousness. She was urgently transported to Notre Dame hospital in Lebanon where Dr. Georges Hanna diagnosed her. After being examined, she was diagnosed with epileptic seizures and a neurological brain disease, an arteriotoxic malformation.

Dr. Hanna sent her to the hospital of the Sacred Heart of Jesus for further examination by Dr. Gh. Abi Chedid. The latter performed brain arteriography and detected an anomaly that is located at the seat of language in the brain. He then ruled out any surgery due to the major risks Valérie may suffer and instead requires her to have adapted treatment while asking her to live a calm life and avoid stress. At this point, the Doctor's Committee recommended the exams be repeated every six months.

In May 2020 Valérie felt very bad and had difficulties talking and some general discomfort. She was depressed and was taken to the hospital. Her doctor decided to increase her dose of treatment. However, he decided to perform an MRI, but Valerie refused because she was scared of it...

Valérie's mom has a great devotion to St Charbel. Valérie entrusted herself to the sacred heart of Jesus and swallowed a pinch of dirt taken from St Charbel's grave and anointed her head with St Sharbel's oil. She begged him to intercede with the Lord to heal her.

That same night St Sharbel operated on her in her sleep. Valérie woke up with a hematoma in her head and lost consciousness. Transported to Notre Dame hospital of Lebanon, Dr. G. Hanna put her through an MRI as agreed before. Amazed to see that Valérie is no longer showing signs of the anomaly (The MRI showed normal brain activity and a cross appeared in place of the tumor) So he sent her to another Hospital for a second opinion. Arriving there, Dr. Abi Rached, renewed the exams and performed a new arteriography. Amazed and without being able to explain it medically, he observed that Valérie's anomaly has actually faded and was cured.

He then performed an encephalogram and found that the epileptic anomaly had also completely disappeared. He then looked at her saying: "your healing is the result of a higher power." And for the first time he revealed to her saying: "You had like a "bomb" in your head".

Through the prayer of her family, and friends Valérie regained health and a normal life. With them all, she went to the Monastery of St Sharbel to thank him and deposited her medical record and recorded this beautiful grace on June 18, 2020.

MARY'S HELPERS NOW HAS BLESSED ST SHARBEL OIL

The oil from Saint Sharbel is not only blessed. a procedure is followed to pass the oil on a piece of Saint Sharbel's bone. This is a very old traditional procedure followed since the 4th century with holy oil passed on the bones of martyrs. The oil is distributed to people in need or who ask. Understand that Saint Sharbel's miracles happen only through Jesus' miraculous work. Please handle the oils with reverence and prayer.

Hail Holy Queen (Salve, Regina)

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of mercy, Our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us. And after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us oh Holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen

NOVENA FOR AMERICA

Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, Intercede for us, your children in America, as we pray for our nation, our military, and our families.

We pray for our government leaders, that they will make just decisions and govern us in accordance with truth and the principles upon which our nation was founded.

We ask protection for our military and our first responders. Bless them and their families as they sacrifice themselves to keep us safe.

We pray for our families, In a culture that seeks to destroy the values upon which the our country was founded, may our families be united in faith and charity.

Reclaim the U.S.A. for your Son's glory, that under His protection and guidance, we may stand together in faith and trust in Him for the changes we seek.

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be...

The Memorare... Amen.

Nuestra señora de fátima Ultimo Mensaje, 25 de julio de 2020 “¡Queridos hijos! En este tiempo turbulento en que el demonio está cosechando almas para atraerlas hacia sí, los llamo a una oración perseverante para que en la oración descubran al Dios del amor y de la esperanza. Hijitos, tomen la cruz en sus manos. Que ella sea para ustedes estímulo de que el amor triunfa siempre, especialmente ahora que la cruz y la fe son rechazadas. Con sus vidas, sean ustedes reflejo y ejemplo de que la fe y la esperanza aún están vivas y que un mundo nuevo de paz es posible. Estoy con ustedes e intercedo por ustedes ante mi Hijo Jesús. Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado.”		El momorare Recuerda, oh muy amable Virgen María, que nunca se supo que alguien que huyó a tu protección, imploró tu ayuda o buscó tu intercesión quedó sin ayuda. Inspirados por esta confianza, volamos hacia ti, oh Virgen de las vírgenes, nuestra Madre, hacia ti, ante ti, pecadores y tristes. Oh Madre del Verbo Encarnado, no desprecies nuestras peticiones, sino que en tu misericordia escúchanos y respóndenos. Amén
Ultimo Mensaje, 25 de agosto de 2020 “¡Queridos hijos! Este es un tiempo de gracia. Estoy con ustedes y los llamo nuevamente, hijitos: regresen a Dios y a la oración hasta que la oración se convierta en alegría para ustedes. Hijitos, no tienen futuro ni paz mientras en su vida no inicie la conversión personal y un cambio hacia el bien. El mal cesará y la paz reinará en sus corazones y en el mundo. Por eso, hijitos, oren, oren, oren. Estoy con ustedes e intercedo ante mi Hijo Jesús por cada uno de ustedes. Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado.”		Blessed Xavier Seelos Catholic Church 3037 Dauphine St, New Orleans, LA (504) 943-5566 23 de Septiembre la Fiesta del Padre Pio, La Santa Misa empieza 8am La Misa Solemne empieza 7pm Te invitamo todos los Segundo Lunes del Mes a la Noche bilingue de Alabanza y Servicio de Sanacion, 7pm-9pm Empezando 9/14,10/12,11/9, & 12/14 conclumos con La Bendicion con la Reliquia de 1st Clase de Beato Francisco Xavier Seelos.
