Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Director, Exempt Organizations

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we've identified you as exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Except for certain organizations that fall in the "501(c)(3) list," you're also qualified to receive tax-deductible contributions. Because of this, you're included in our list of 501(c)(3) organizations. If you have questions about your exempt status, please look at the "501(c)(3) list."

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are exempt from federal income tax and are eligible for private foundation, public charity, and public utility status under the IRC Section listed at the end of this letter.

For information, if you don't file a return for the year of your first taxable activity, your exempt status will be automatically renewed.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an extended application was enclosed, the enclosed application is an integral part of this letter.

The following information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, or as an exempt organization, may help you to understand how to best participate in the activities of your organization. For information about the requirements that apply to your organization, see the "501(c)(3) list" and the "501(c)(3) list."
