

LINDA DEMPSTER, resident of Durham Region, brings to life music and song that evokes peoplehood through her lyrical renditions of traditional and contemporary folk songs and ballads. Linda accompanies herself on an Appalachian Mountain dulcimer, guitar and folk harp. It has often been said that, "Folk songs and ballads need a dulcimer like blossoms need rain." Performances include both acoustic and amplified: Concerts, conferences, dinner receptions, benefits/fundraisers, live radio & television, heritage celebrations & festivals - as a soloist, and in collaboration with other artists. Remuneration will be as agreed upon, in advance. Where other musicians/artists are involved, an appendix of additional requirements will be provided.
