On Sunday, May 18th, rainy and potentially severe weather may have been the culprits in shutting down the con- tinued Kiowa Indian Council meeting. The May 18th gathering was only able to draw 95 Tribal members and the meeting was officially called, slightly before 3pm. KIC Coordinator Direnza Gormann tried to continue a two continued meeting day for June 22nd, hoping to resume the meeting. A new issue arose during the re- mainder when the June 1st Budget and Elections resolution, that was scheduled by the Kiowa Election Commission (KIC), was canceled in the final hours before the elec- tion. According to the KIC Coordina- tor, "There were no completed 95 minutes or certified signed resolutions to be officially submitted to the KIC. On May 14, the KIC attempted to complete the rescheduled Annual meeting but due to inevitable weather, no quorum. On the May 18th meeting, during informal discussions, the KIC 95 members voiced that they were not in agreement with the June 1st budget that had been circulated before, that included an "incomplete" list of approved resolutions from April 8th, 2019. Said Gormann, "There are twelve more resolutions for re- view to complete the KIC Annual meeting. The Executive and Legislative branches are not in agreement with the June 1st general election budget. In a letter sent to the KIC Board by the Kiowa Legislature, they stated that "The June 1, 2019, election is in violation to the "unofficial budget submission" the Kiowa Tribe Legislative process. The Legislature further informed the KIC that the official budget process of the Legislative resolution process is not final at this time. Consequently, it will be submitted to the KIC for formal letter approval. The KIC letter was signed by the Speaker and Chair. After consideration of the discrep- ancy Gormann made the request to the KIC. With consideration of the KIC Annual meeting experien- ce, a motion is to submit the KIC to the Kiowa INdian Council to be considered the June 1, 2019, general election process. At this meeting, "In June 1st budget until the KIC Annual meeting is canceled, each member of the KIC Annual meeting, the KIC will authorize the completion of the resolution as signed and official by the June 22, 2019 elected KIC Chairman Jacob Zotigh and Secre- tary Center Brook. The Kiowa News will be announced at a later date.

The new Kiowa Tribe Dance Grounds will once again be the site of the Kiowa Gourd Clan Celebration is July 2nd, 3rd, and 4th. For further information contact the Kiowa Gourd Clan Officers.

The terms “power” is everywhere in our world. Thinking of it, the phrase “word inflation” comes to mind. Much of what we communicate in print, on television and in advertising centers on the concept of power. But what is that concept? What is power?

The truth is that the word bears an impossible burden of interpretation. Definitions are myriad; the dictionary lists an unusual number of meanings. Simply put, power is what it is—that which enables us to influence, if not to command, the course of our lives. And in a word. Words are powerful. As a writer, my experience tells me that nothing is more powerful. Language, after all, is made of words. Words are conceptual symbols that are unique—constructive and constructive properties.

The word “power” denotes force, physical strength, resistance. It connotes something more subtle—persuasion, suggestion, inspiration, urging. Consider the words of Mark Antony in Shakespeare’s “Julius Caesar.” “Cry ‘Sicily!’ and let the dogs of war; That this我们的 world. Thinking of it, the phrase “word inflation” comes to mind. Severe Weather Presentation in RBH

When they make a visit to Red Bull Hall, Complex employees, community members, Elders, and town officials were present in RBH for the presentation.

Images were shown of recent severe weather events including tornadoes in Mangum and the damage that resulted from the storm and the one in El Reno which claimed 2 lives.

KWSO Channel 7

Throughout the evening and early morning, KWSO Channel 7 called “The 7th Inning” which deals with spring weather and it’s called “The 5th Season” which is 13 minutes and so quick action is needed to be warned and take shelter.

Using weather maps, Dipirro discussed the difference between watches and warnings and precautions that should be taken. Comparing frequency of tornado outbreaks, Dipirro said that since 1950 Oklahoma has had 17 tornadoes. He said that this year alone, there have been 55 tornados.

He also said that the average lead time to be warned and take shelter is 15 minutes. He said that a tornado warning is announced when they make a visit to Red Bull Hall. Complex employees, community members, Elders, and town officials were present in RBH for the presentation.

On May 9, 2018, many residents in the Carnegie area were awakened by thunder, lightning, torrential rain, and strong winds. Alarms were off indicating possible tornado activity nearby. Fortunately, when the storm passed, there were no injuries or damages.

Emergency supplies are recommended for a long stay in a shelter: 1 gallon of water per person for 3 days, non-perishable food, flashlights, light, weather radio, batteries, first aid kit, medications.

San Jose Earthquakes forward, Chris Wondolowski, scored his 148th MLS career goal on Saturday against the Chicago Fire. With this goal, the 36-year-old surpassed Landon Donovan’s 145 goals for the United States and was part of the squad that won the 2014 World Cup.

Wondolowski was later substituted for a long stay in a shelter: 1 gallon of water per person for 3 days, non-perishable food, flashlights, light, weather radio, batteries, first aid kit, medications.

We want to celebrate Wondolowski’s record-breaking game.

“It’s crazy,” Wondolowski said of his record-breaking goal. “I love visualization, I always have pictures in my head to the upper 90. I didn’t really picture the goalkeeper dropping it and tapping it in.”

He added: “It’s enraging and reignited this passion. I always wanted to do it and be done with it. I didn’t picture a day like this. Getting so much joy right now. The locker room. The love and the respect.”

Wondolowski waited 13 matches to tie and then break Donovan’s record on Saturday, with his most recent MLS goal coming all the way back on Oct. 6. “It is a relief now. I’m not going to lie,” he said. “But it is still so surreal that I got a message from Landon Donovan—that he even knows my name still is crazy and boggles my mind.”

Wondolowski also has 11 goals and 15 caps for the United States and was part of the squad that won the 2014 World Cup.
