

Mount Olivet Free Christian Church Records

The congregation met in a building on what is now Walker Road; the building also functioned as a school. The ruins of the building and the church's graveyard survive. The property is now surrounded by the Big Elk Creek State Park, formerly Strawbridge lands, and is listed in the Township Historic Resource Survey (#156). The record book was acquired by the Township in late 2022, and more than 100 scanned pages from the book are at the end of this document.

The Township History notes: Ruins of the Mt. Olivet Church and cemetery (Free Christians, also known as Plummerites) are visible today along Walker Road. The Mt. Olivet congregation dates to the late 1840s, and the church was dedicated in 1848. The church later served other congregations and as a school.

A cleanup of the church cemetery was undertaken in 2004. The picture below is from the August 2009 Township Newsletter.

At this ceremony several described items inside this journal were placed inside a "box". Later that year the dedication of "The First Free Christian Chapel" was also recorded by the Christian Herald on August 20th. The Chapel was situated on Mount Olivet in New London Township about 47 miles southwest of Philadelphia. The meeting notes from this point forward were recorded from Mount Olivet, New London up to May, 1855. Different members recorded the Church's business during it's beginnings. Some of the entries are lengthy and include religious resolutions and narratives. The clerks included John Benge, Charles Plummer, J.H. Steele, and John Robertson. The last entry during the early years was dated May 5th, 1855. On the same page is an accounting of 'rents' received. One page of accounting for rents is dated 1888. The few remaining manuscript pages contain account records from 1896 and 1903. The Church was led in service by the Pastor Elder Charles Henry Plummer in the early years. Seller Inventory # 24766

"Christian Church"

About 1845 to 1850, Elder Frederick Plummer, a minister of the denomination calling themselves "Christians" came into this county and preached in a grove near Kimbleville. He continued to hold services and made converts to his faith, who erected a brick church edifice about 2 miles SW of Kimbleville, in Franklin twp, which they called Mt Olivet, and where a church of that persuasion was organized. Elder Charles H Plummer, a nephew of Frederick Plummer, was pastor for a few years and was succeeded by Elder Wm H Pittman. A Mr Parvin also preached there for a time. About 1878 and 1879, Rev David Somers, of the church of the Disciples, in Penn twp preached there and superintended a Sunday-school. The church is now unoccupied for religious purposes (1881). The membership is not numerous.

Mt. Olivet Church

Mr. Editor: - Permit me to give your many readers a short account of Mt. Olivet Church and Sabbath School, in Franklin Township. This church is a neat building, with basement in which day school is held, situated on the road leading from Spring Lawn Mills to Kimbleville. It stands on a little eminence, partly surrounded by woodland. It was built about thirty years ago, by a society calling themselves Free Christian Baptists, but more generally known as Plummerites, from the fact of Elder Fredrick Plummer being their first leader in these parts and two of his nephews ministers at this church for a time. Large numbers of people attended the meetings and meetings for baptism [sic]. Presbyterians and other denominations spoke against them, and they were charged with being sorinians [sic]. After a few years they declined and the congregation was unable to pay a minister. For a time they held meetings without a minister, but finally the church was closed and several years it was unoccupied, even for Sabbath school purposes. An effort was made some five or six years ago to gather a congregation under Elder Parvin, and for a time it seemed to be successful, but owing to some misunderstanding he left them and for three or four years the building was again unoccupied.

The present spring application was made for the church to hold a union Sabbath school in. The request was granted and the school organized. It is as yet but small, having some 30 or 35 scholars; but the number is still increasing, with a prospect of a good school. Charles Ramsey, Presbyterian, is superintendent; Joseph Price, radical Methodist, assistant superintendent; John Tweed, E. Methodist, secretary. The school meets at 9 o'clock each Sabbath morning. The friends of Sabbath schools of all denominations are invited to visit this school. It is in a field where labor is needed and we trust will be blest.

Name of the Eminence.

The name given to the eminence upon which the chapel is to be erected is "Mount Olivet."

The ceremony was solemn and impressive, and being a novelty in this part, it will not soon be forgotten. May God ^{give} full success to his own truth, and may chapels rise up in every part of the land, in which it shall be fearlessly proclaimed.

The following was observed as the Order of Exercises:

A four days meeting commenced on Saturday, Aug 19th and continued until Tuesday evening, the 22nd of Aug. The interest felt in the meeting was very great. The preaching by brethren F. Plummer, J. Robertson, J. R. Freese, and J. Orrel, was powerful and in demonstration of the Spirit. Through the meeting some were constrained to cry out as anciently, "What must I do to be saved? God be merciful to me a sinner!" &c, &c. Some were convicted of sin; some converted from sin; some confessed Christ; some voted for Christ; and nearly the whole congregation de-clared, by rising up, that they were determined to seek the salvation of their souls. It was truly a Pentecostal season, and may it prove not the last we shall have, but only the first, to be followed with still greater manifestation of God's power and presence.

Yours in Christ

Charles Henry Plummer.

Preamble. Whereas it is expected that applications will be made by Ministers and people of other religious denominations than our own, for the privilege to be granted them to come and occupy this Chapel, for the purposes of preaching the Gospel and of worshipping God - It is therefore very important that this, the Christian Society of East Nottingham and New London Town.

ships, Chester county Pennsylvania, under the pastoral charge of Elder Charles Henry Plummer; worshipping in this the "First Free Christian Chapel of Chester County, Pa," situate on Mount Olivet, as the Apostle Paul has commanded us to "let all things be done decently and in order" (1 Cor 14 ch 40 vs) that we define the extent of meaning in which this house is to be considered free, and to expressly prescribe the course which shall be pursued in granting its use to others, of the different religious denominations than our own. And whereas the power to grant the use of this house is clearly set forth in this clause of the subscription paper, to wit - "This house to be built for and to be owned by the Christian Society, under the pastoral charge of Charles Henry Plummer, with this express provision, that when ^{not} occupied by them, it can be occupied by any religious denomination in good standing." The right of granting the use of this house being plainly stated, as belonging to the Christian Society, the owners of it - it is for the society to prescribe the manner in which it shall be granted: - Therefore be it -

Resolved 1st - That this the Christian chapel on Mount Olivet, in New London Township, Chester county, Pa. owned by the Christian Society, under the pastoral charge of Elder Charles H. Plummer, is Free for all people, of every grade and color, of every Religious denomination to come and worship God in, and when opportunity is presented to exercise their own proper gift as the Lord may direct.

It always and invariably being required that the conditions of this Preamble and following Resolutions be complied with. And in no other sense at all is this house free? Adopted

Resolved 2nd - That when a Minister of any Religious denomination, other than our own, in good standing, both as a Preacher and Member regularly authorized and duly recommended by some known Church, wishes with some of his people to come and occupy this Chapel for the purposes of worshipping God and preaching the Gospel of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ - Application must be made in writing to the church, at the regular or special meetings, which can be called by the Pastor at the request of three members, or in his absence by the Clerk, and by them in the capacity of a Church meeting, to be decided upon; and if the conditions herein set forth be complied with it shall be granted, and when so granted, it is to be with the consent of the Pastor and never without it, as he possesseth the only Right to the pulpit, unless his absence should prevent his sanction being obtained, in which case the Church shall exercise its own discretionary power with this very express understanding that it is ^{always} to be occupied with and never independent of this Society. Adopted

Resolved 3rd - That when it shall be impie-

(Whichever of the two is covered)

-licable for an application for the use of this cha-pel, to be presented to a regular or special or Society of good standing, and also recommendations from those who know them and who will vouch for their good standing as moral and religious persons, unless the preacher be known from their long standing as such to this community as approved preachers of the Gospel and as moral persons, together with those of our own denomination with whom the Society has formed an acquaintance as they have been introduced by our Pastor, in which case it will not be necessary to demand the authority for them to preach; nor letters of recommendation as they have been properly recommended already. heating, always provided that it cannot be used in any way to conflict with the regulations and provisions of the above and foregoing Preamble and Resolutions. Adopted

Copy of a Letter received from Dr John Robertson, dated Philadelphia 22nd of 12th mo 1848

To the Members of the Christian Church Mount Olivet Chester Co. under the pastoral care of Elder C.H. Plummer

Dearlly Beloved Brethren & Sisters in Christ.
 I have great joy of heart in hearing of the prosperity of the Redeemers cause among you, and of the increase of your little band. I rejoice to hear that your zeal continues unabated, and that you do all in your power to promote the pure and holy truths of the word of God, especially as they are clearly set forth in the four Gospels, which reveal the doings and sayings of the Lord Jesus whom we profess to follow, and through whom we have the free forgiveness of all our sins, on our repentance and amendment of life.

The opening of your House of worship was a season of sweet refreshment to my soul. I know not that I ever experienced more heavenly delight at any public worship on any occasion, during my past life, though I have been a professor of religion from my boyish days. Great is my desire therefore to visit you and your beloved, and laborious, self-sacrificing pastor again, that I may once more witness your warmth in exhortation, your fervour in prayer, your christian zeal, your brotherly love to one another, your readiness to further the cause of truth and righteousness, to the best of your ability, in accordance with the simple but sublime teachings of Him who spake as never man did or can speak, for God was in him in all that he said or did. But will not God be in you also, though not in the same degree, if you use the means put in your power, and follow strictly the directions of the Saviour, who says to all, "Seek, and ye shall find, knock, and it shall be opened unto you." And again James speaks much to the same purpose in the following sentence, - "If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not." Surely, no shadow of doubt, as to the truth and reality of the blessed, this glorious, heart-cheering, soul-reviving doctrine can ever pass over, or settle upon the mind of any one who calmly, impartially, and prayerfully reads with deep attention the words of eternal life.

Read, I beseech you, read the word of life daily, lay it up in your inmost heart, and pray unceasingly to the God and Father of all living that He may enable you to continue faithful, and bless you abundantly with all spiritual blessings in his beloved Son.

That this may be your happy state of mind has ever been my fervent prayer at a throne of Grace, boundless love and compassion to all intelligent, and penitent sinners, I say sinners, for who of us can say, he has no sin? No one surely in a right state of mind. We all of us come far short of our duty. We have both sins of omission, and commission. We do not make a proper use of those noble powers of mind by which we are distinguished above the fowls of the heaven and the beasts that perish, and by which powers we can in a measure pierce into eternity, the eternity of our being, the gift of God bestowed upon us through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Beloved Brethren & Sisters let me speak to you free.

ely; for surely our communications, one with another should be free, and as, in the presence of God, as, in reality we are all. Although in the good and Merciful Providence of the Almighty I have been kept from great sins, from my youth upwards, yet I cannot help looking upon myself as the chief of sinners; because, although, religiously brought up, and blessed with kind, ^{and religious} parents, I have never made a right use of either the time or the talents granted me, and I can never cease bitterly reproaching myself for the loss of precious time, and of talents misapplied, because not employed in the cause of God and Christ.

And although I was early taught that, "man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy him for ever;" yet, too, too remiss have I been in following up this sound doctrine, O how good, and kind, and merciful God has been to me, no language can express; for though unworthy of the many-fold blessings of general good health, and great activity of body and mind bestowed upon me, I am afraid I am not so thankful as I ought to be. In this state of mind I can not but feel deeply humbled before God; and therefore feel no kind of self-righteousness, nor any spiritual pride in regard to any one of my fellow sinners, since I have nothing, and never had any thing good, but that which came from my heavenly Father. The doctrine is strictly and literally true, "that every good, and every perfect gift cometh down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variableness neither shadow of turning."

In my religious experience, I find that it is good to be, "wise as the serpent, but harmless as the dove." I find it to be absolutely necessary, in order to be happy in mind, to hold daily, yea hourly intercourse with my maker for a supply of that grace of which we all stand so much in need every moment of our lives. And this daily intercourse I can not but pray earnestly that you all may be blest with deep humility of soul, self-denial, and perfect resignation to the will of God in every circumstance of life, from a firm conviction that, however hard your lot in this world may be, it is most assuredly intended to work out, through divine aid the salvation of your soul. I am well assured that in your daily intercourse with a wicked and gainsaying world you will have need of every christian grace and virtue, and a constant leaning upon an Almighty Arm for support under your ever and anon returning trials. But it will be your exceedingly great comfort and happiness that you have an Almighty friend always near, one that sticketh closer than a brother to you, and on whom you can rely with the most unwavering confidence. I have no doubt, but that because you cannot subscribe to unscriptural doctrines which nei-ther you nor I can see the least appearance of proof in Gods word but on the contrary the most unquestionable proof against them, you will be not a little persecuted by those who call themselves or-thodox, that is, right thinkers. Now, in this case I humbly hope you will all bear patiently whatever abuse they may heap upon you, and treat with christian mildness whatever slander they may spread against you. Trust in the Lord for re-dress, and be assured, he will redress all your wrongs, and make all at last work together for your good, and the glory of his name in Christ.

I am truly sorry to say it is not in my power to say when I can come. A few days ago, I was almost sure of paying you a visit, with a view of delivering a lecture on John Calvin of a con-ciliatory and lenient nature, and another on William Penn: but untoward circumstances I fear will prevent me. I shall, however try to the utmost of my power, and if I do come at this time, it will be next week. Yours in the Gospel of Christ
 John Robertson.

was appointed to act Protempore. The Minutes of the last regular meeting were read and on Motion approved of.

It having been announced that the express object of this meeting was to dispose of the case of J. H. Heilenman & wife now pending, as well as the election of a brother to fill the vacant Deaconship - the following preamble and resolutions were read and submitted for consideration -

Whereas John H. Heilenman, and Mary his wife, having now for several months, neglected their duty in not attending the meetings of this church, for public worship, and having utterly refused to meet the church, in regular Church Meetings, for three times, after having been notified to do so, by the clerk, the Elders, and the Pastor; and two regular Church meetings having passed by, since they were so notified, and give reason or reasons, and show cause or causes, for their disaffection; and whereas they having refused to give any reason, or show any cause for their neglect of duty, or to obey the commands of the church - It therefore becomes the plain and obvious duty, in view of the welfare of this church, as well as the disaffected members, for the reasons above assigned, to maintain the authority of Christ's Government, as contained in the New Testament Scriptures - by passing the following Resolutions - to wit -

Resolved that this Church, after protracted deliberation, fervent labor, and much prayer does now withdraw all Christian fellowship from the said John F. Heilmann, and Mary his wife, until such time, as they shall see the sinfulness of their course, repent of the same, and make an humble confession of their faults to the Church, and the public congregation.

Resolved that the above preamble & Resolution be read in the public meeting, by one of the Elders of this Church on next Lords day morning at the close of the services -

It was moved and seconded that the preamble and Resolution be adopted, after due discussion in which Messrs Scott, Stern, Steele, Wadswager and Plummer participated, they were put to vote and adopted unanimously.

In the discussion it was shown from the New Testament, that it is the duty of the Church from every brother and sister who walketh disorderly - to rebuke, 1 Tim. 5. 20; Titus 1. 13; 2. 15. To withdraw ourselves &c - 2 Thes. 3. 6; 1 Tim 6. 5.

Resolved that this Church do now proceed to elect a brother to fill the vacant Deaconship -

Resolved that the manner of the election be this. The list of Male Members who are not already chosen to fill the office of Elder or Deacon be the nomination of Candidates, and that each member present, write or cause to be written upon a piece of blank paper, the name of the brother whom he or she may desire to fill the office, and that the same be deposited in a hat, and when all have voted, who may desire to vote the clerk shall count off the same, and when the result is known, the brother having the highest number of votes shall be elected.

The Church proceeded to vote as directed by the resolutions. The following was the result - N. Tyson 7 votes, G. W. Kimble 1 vote. N. Tyson was declared to be elected to serve for the unexpired time for which J. S. Heileman was elected. J. E. Steele was unanimously re-elected to serve as Treasurer one year from the 29th of December 1849.

G. H. Plummer, mentioned that according to the notice of D. W. Montgomery, he supposed that he should be obliged to change his residence. He labored under one very great difficulty - that of his engagements expiring on the 16th of August & the time for renting houses being the 1st of April. This made him feel always unsettled. In the event of a separation of pastor and people, it would subject him to considerable loss, more than he felt able to bear. He mentioned also that he had a prospect of getting Mr Wm. Booths house, where Mr Thos. Strickland now resides, for the rent of $40.00. The privileges being a cow kept, a small orchard, a piece of grass ground for potatoes, garden and stable.

The Church engaged to become responsible for the payment of the ballance of the rent, if circumstances should be such that we should separate on or after the 16 of August next.

The pastor gave notice of his intended southern trip to the South part of Virginia - if he could be spared a few weeks, and that it would best suit his arrangements to leave immediately after the next quarterly meeting.

It was also mentioned that the attendance of some of our members was so irregular, that it was now necessary for the church to have an understanding of what it had a right to expect from them. On Motion adjourned.

Closed with prayer. C. H. Plummer

Plummer against the church in his first annual report which was given to him by the friends of the cause of Christ being given towards his support, & in aid of the Gospel, & not to his special benefit was a misunderstanding of him & them, he supposing that the things they called presents, were designed for his, alone, or special benefit, and they intending them as so much aid to the church in giving him the promised support, which appears by their signature. — two over

Report— Whereas, there are several members of this Church who have continued to absent themselves from the regular appointed meetings of this Church for some cause unknown to her, and have not considered the exhortation of the Apostle Paul cease not to assemble yourselves together & to exhort one another &c. And Christ the great head of the Church, has said. I am the vine, ye are the Branches.
he that abideth in me & I in him— turn over

- the same bringeth forth much fruit, for without me or out of me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me (or in my Church) he is cast forth as a branch, & is withered. & therein is my Father glorified that ye bring forth much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples, and here the inference is if we do not bring forth fruit to the glory of God, we cannot be his disciples. If we do not attend the meetings of his Church, we cannot be living members. It therefore becomes the duty of this Church, as she loves Christ, as she loves herself, as she loves the souls of Men, to enquire into the cause of such neglect on the part of those who have been absent;

Therefore Resolved - that a copy of the above preamble & this resolution be sent to each of the members therein alluded to, & that they are hereby requested, to attend the Church meeting to take place on the first Saturday in November next, & satisfy the Church that they are living

Christ; or manifest a disposition to become reconciled thereto by obedience to its requirements.
