DEVIL'S FOOTPRINT

Local wildflower honey is fermented with blackberries, raspberries and blueberries from Cider Hill Farm (Amesbury) and Nourse Farm (Deerfield) to produce a tart, dry mead. All meads where fruit and honey are combined are called "Melomel" style.

ABV 13.1%

WICKED WENCH

Nothing is more mead like than this! Northshore local wildflower honey is used to make this middle sweetness mead. Both floral and earthy characteristics of this local honey come through on your nose and palate. Meads made only with honey are called a "Traditional" mead.

There are over 300 types of honey produced in the US, each with its own flavor profile.

VIKING VICTORY

Red bamboo varietal honey is fermented as a semi-sweet mead and the aged with mulling spices: clove, nutmeg, allspice, and cinnamon. This style of spiced mead, or "Metheglin" has been around for millenniums. Sit around your fire and plan your pillaging!

ABV 15.5%

RASPBERRY DELIGHT

Fresh, raw local honey is fermented with juicy red berries from Norse Farms in Deerfield, MA for this "Melomel" style mead. Delicately balanced between the tart berries and sweet honey. Enjoy this dangerously delicious mead all by itself or mix it with lemonade for a great cocktail!

ABV 15%
