

The INTERTRIBAL NURSERY COUNCIL and TRIBAL ALLIANCE
For POLLINATORS present
2019 ANNUAL MEETING
11-13 June 2019
Tulsa, OK

DRAFT AGENDA

Tuesday, June 11

Registration

Welcome – Jane Breckinridge, Tribal Alliance for Pollinators, Leonard, OK

Welcome – Jesse Allen, Secretary of the Interior, Muscogee (Creek) Nation, Okmulgee, OK

Blessing – Norma Marshall, College of the Muscogee Nation, Okmulgee, OK

Welcome and meeting overview – Jeremiah Pinto, USDA Forest Service, Moscow, ID

Keynote – Sara Hill, Secretary of Natural Resources, Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, OK

Environmental Initiatives in the Muscogee (Creek) Nation – James Williams, Muscogee (Creek) Nation Environmental Department, Okmulgee, OK

Establishing cultural connectivity through a naturalistic approach to watershed restoration – Lindsey Quam, Santa Clara Pueblo, NM

Native Americans, Monarchs, Milkweed and Land Use – Chip Taylor, Monarch Watch, Lawrence, KS

Culturally Significant Plants and Climate Change – April Taylor, Chickasaw Nation, South Central Climate Adaptation Science Center, Norman OK

Lunch (noon-ish; included with registration)

Depart for afternoon tour

Philbrook Museum: Native American Art Collection, Gardens, & Reception

Wednesday, June 12

USDA-NRCS Programs for Pollinators, Monarch Butterflies and Seasonal High Tunnels – Carol Couch, USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service, Stillwater, OK

Greenhouse management: minimizing pathogens and propagation of unstudied and challenging first foods – Gretchen Graber, Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR), Pendleton, OR

Success of installing native plants plugs in Bromus tectorum dominated landscapes - Steven Link, CTUIR, Pendleton, OR

New seed collection zones for the eastern United States – Carolyn Pike, USDA Forest Service, West Lafayette, IN

THE MUSCOGEE (CREEK) NATION

Eastern Shawnee Tribe
of Oklahoma

WFCA Western Forestry and
Conservation Association

The INTERTRIBAL NURSERY COUNCIL and TRIBAL ALLIANCE
For POLLINATORS present
2019 ANNUAL MEETING
11-13 June 2019
Tulsa, OK

DRAFT AGENDA

Building resiliency with native seeds, Navajo Heritage Program – Jesse Mike, Navajo Natural Heritage Program, Flagstaff, AZ

Green workforce training and the National Green Infrastructure Certification Program – Ken Parker, Buffalo Push, Buffalo, NY

Student project round robin

Depart for field tours (box lunch on bus)

O-Gah-Pah Greenhouses and Horticulture, Quapaw, OK

Eastern Shawnee of Oklahoma Greenhouses, Wyandotte, OK

Traditional Dinner

Thursday, June 13 (Euchee Butterfly Farm, Leonard, OK)

Pollinator Restoration Workshop and Presentations

Target Plant Concept and TEK – Jeremiah Pinto, USDA Forest Service, Moscow, ID

Eagle Presentation – Jennifer Randell, Citizen Potawatomi Eagle Aviary, Shawnee, OK

Lunch

Pollinator Restoration Workshop and Presentations

Closeout Dinner

Adjourn

THE
MUSCOGEE (CREEK) NATION

Eastern Shawnee Tribe
of Oklahoma

WFCA Western Forestry and Conservation Association

