Special Music- We thank God for the willingness of our young adults to share their talents and time in service of God and Christ's Church through their gifts, including music. This week as we would have hoped to have been doing our annual youth mini music camp, we'll have some guests to inspire our future generations of musicians.

Sanda Masic, a native of Serbia with a bachelors and masters degree in flute performance along with many solo awards will be featured. She will be supported by David Gould on cello and Emelia Bale singing. Sanda has just completed her chamber music graduate certificate from UW-Milwaukee in 2019 and will be a doctoral student in flute performance and education at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln this fall. She is presently residing in Oconomowoc. David is back from his new home in Seattle, Washington. Emelia has been a frequent participant in bells and online worship music and studies at WCTC. She is the granddaughter of Roland and Elaine Broberg.

Thanks for your service in song! Soli Deo gloria! (Photo credit to John Kimpel.)
