Lent is upon us and with it the many changes that take place at this time of year. It is a common saying that March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. Long dark days hang on, but the light begins to creep back each day. Lent is a penitential season and even Lutherans will sometimes adopt the Roman Catholic practice of giving things up for Lent, including meatless Fridays. When we have the fabulous Wisconsin Friday fish-fry, giving up meat is not too much of a sacrifice.

Congregations are encouraged to adopt a sparer atmosphere - less decoration in the sanctuary and a more subdued and limited liturgy. Our children helped us prepare for the season by carrying out the "Alleluia" banner at the end of the worship service on Transfiguration Sunday. The Alleluia doesn't return until Easter when the full celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord is observed.

A key verse that we might use for our regular reflection this Lent comes from Philippians 2:5-11,

5 Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited, 7 but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form, 8 he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death-even death on a cross.
9 Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

I invite you to use the season of Lent to reset your life center. Let the disciplines of Lent be less of a burden and more freeing from the daily grind that we often put ourselves through. Give yourself permission to "waste" time with God. May you be blessed during this season and get ready to celebrate the joy of the resurrection.

In Christ,

Pastor Jim Holmberg +

PJs, Fuzzy Socks and Undies Are Needed

Nancy Yarbrough-Banks, survivor and founder of Fresh Start Learning in Milwaukee, says the women who stay overnight in the shelter called "Humble Beginnings" need flannel pajamas (S-3XL) fuzzy socks and underwear.

Humble Beginnings, located in the 15th District, opened on Oct. 4, 2018 and has served more than 200 women, who are victims of sex trafficking and domestic violence. The beds are full Thursday night through Monday morning (the days the shelter is open). "We want the ladies to come in off the street, to take off the old and put on the new," Yarbrough-Banks explains.

There will be a box labeled "PJs, Socks and Undies for Humble Beginnings" in the upper sanctuary now through March 8. Please consider donating.
