Dear Crafter,

The Ole Towne Festival Committee agreed that the show must go on! Now that May is here, and Governor Murphy has announced an increase in outdoor gathering limits as of May 10th. We are happy to be moving forward with our beloved Ole Towne Festival! We are optimistic that come June these limits will be increased further thus allowing us to have even more people come and enjoy our festival!

The Ole Towne Festival Committee is committed to putting the safety of all of our vendors and community first, which is why we are taking all of the necessary steps to ensure the festival happens in 2021 year, however that may be. We just ask for your willingness to be flexible as we move forward. We are all trying our best and have the same end goal- to have a great 2021 Ole Towne Festival!

Join in on the excitement as an official craft vendor during the weekend! As an exhibitor, please review the following guidelines to assure an atmosphere of fun and quality is provided to our attendees:
