

THE PROPHET'S DICTIONARY

7-Day Church Devotional

WEEK 3

Symbolic & Supernatural Language

Based on The Prophet's Dictionary by Paula A. Price, PhD

Daily Devotionals — Week 3

Day 1 | Heaven Has a Language

WORD OF THE DAY

Supernatural Language

The divine communication system through which God expresses heavenly realities using earthly forms — symbols, numbers, colors, metaphors, and images — to convey spiritual truth that transcends natural understanding. It is the native tongue of the prophetic realm.

Scripture Anchor — 1 Corinthians 2:13

These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

Reflection

How comfortable are you with the idea that God communicates in a language that requires spiritual perception — not just intellectual understanding? Are there areas where you have demanded clarity in a form God wasn't using?

My Response:

Prayer

Holy Spirit, teach me Your language. Open my spiritual perception so that I can receive what You are saying through symbols, images, and impressions. I will not limit You to only what my mind can analyze. Amen.

DECLARATION

I am fluent in the language of the Spirit. Heaven speaks and I understand.

Day 2 | Colors Carry a Message

WORD OF THE DAY

Prophetic Color

Colors used in Scripture, dreams, or visions that carry consistent symbolic meaning. For example: white often represents holiness or purity; red can signify the blood of Christ or war; purple often denotes royalty and authority; gold represents the glory and divine nature of God.

Scripture Anchor — Revelation 1:14

His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire.

Reflection

Have you ever noticed a particular color appearing repeatedly in your dreams or in your spirit during worship or prayer? What colors tend to stand out to you in prophetic experiences, and have you ever asked God what He means by them?

My Response:

Prayer

Lord, open my eyes to the full spectrum of how You speak. When You paint a vision in color, help me to perceive what You are communicating through each shade and hue. Amen.

DECLARATION

I see with prophetic eyes. The colors God shows me carry meaning I am learning to receive.

Day 3 | Numbers Are Not Neutral

WORD OF THE DAY

Prophetic Number

Numerical values that appear in Scripture, dreams, or visions with consistent spiritual significance. For example: 7 represents completion or perfection; 12 represents governmental order; 40 represents testing and transition; 3 represents the Trinity or divine confirmation.

Scripture Anchor — Revelation 13:18

Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

Reflection

Have you ever noticed a number recurring in your life — on clocks, in dreams, in Scripture passages God keeps drawing you back to? What number keeps showing up for you, and have you ever sought God about its significance?

My Response:

Prayer

Father, nothing in Your communication is accidental — not even numbers. Give me wisdom to perceive what You are marking and measuring in my life through the numbers You highlight. Amen.

DECLARATION

God speaks with precision. The numbers He highlights in my life carry divine meaning.

Day 4 | What Animals Are Saying

WORD OF THE DAY

Animal Symbol

Creatures that appear in Scripture, dreams, or visions and carry prophetic significance. The lion often represents strength, royalty, or Christ Himself; the eagle speaks of prophetic vision and divine perspective; the serpent typically represents deception or the enemy; the dove represents the Holy Spirit and peace.

Scripture Anchor — Revelation 5:5

But one of the elders said to me, 'Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals.'

Reflection

What animals have appeared in your dreams or in Scripture passages that have stood out to you? Have you ever considered that their appearance may carry a message beyond the natural — that God is communicating something about identity, danger, or calling?

My Response:

Prayer

Lord, You used a burning bush, a donkey, and a great fish to communicate Your purposes. Remind me that You can speak through any image You choose. Open my understanding to animal symbols You place before me. Amen.

DECLARATION

I recognize prophetic symbols in every form God chooses to use. Nothing He shows me is random.

Day 5 | The Language of Direction and Position

WORD OF THE DAY

Spatial Symbol

Directional and positional imagery in prophetic communication carrying spiritual meaning. North often represents spiritual warfare and the seat of God's throne; south can represent the natural realm or flesh; east represents new beginnings and the glory of God; west can represent endings or the Gentile nations.

Scripture Anchor — Ezekiel 43:2

And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with His glory.

Reflection

In prayer or in dreams, have you ever had a strong sense of a direction — facing east, moving north, or looking upward? How might understanding spatial symbols change how you pray over your city or intercede for specific regions?

My Response:

Prayer

Lord, I receive the fullness of how You speak — even through direction and position. As an intercessor, help me to understand what You are saying about where I am standing and what is coming from every direction. Amen.

DECLARATION

I am a Spirit-led intercessor. I understand the language of direction and I pray with precision.

Day 6 | Metaphor as Revelation

WORD OF THE DAY

Prophetic Metaphor

A figure of speech used by God to convey a spiritual reality through a natural image. Metaphors in Scripture are not merely literary devices — they are revelatory frameworks. Jesus used them constantly: 'I am the vine,' 'I am the bread,' 'You are the salt of the earth.'

Scripture Anchor — John 15:1

I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.

Reflection

What metaphor has God used with you most powerfully — either from Scripture or in a dream or personal word? When you sit with 'I am the vine,' what does it reveal about your current season of connection, pruning, or fruitfulness?

My Response:

Prayer

Father, Your metaphors are not decorations — they are revelations. Teach me to dwell in the images You give rather than rushing past them. Let every metaphor become a lens through which I understand You more deeply. Amen.

DECLARATION

God's metaphors are doorways into deeper revelation. I pause to receive what every image carries.

Day 7 | Reading the Language Around You

WORD OF THE DAY

Prophetic Sign

A tangible event, object, or occurrence in the natural world that God uses to communicate a spiritual message. Signs are not superstition — they are divinely orchestrated moments when heaven intersects the natural to confirm, warn, or direct.

Scripture Anchor — Luke 21:25

And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity.

Reflection

Have you ever had an experience where something in the natural world felt like a direct communication from God — an unexpected encounter, a phrase that appeared at the right moment, a weather event, or a recurring object? How did you process it? What would a healthy, Scripture-anchored approach to reading signs look like for you?

My Response:

Prayer

Lord, make me attentive without becoming superstitious. Help me to recognize the signs You ordain while remaining rooted in Your Word. Let me be a person who reads the times with wisdom and discernment. Amen.

DECLARATION

I am attentive to the signs God places in my path. I read them with wisdom and anchor them in His Word.
