

World Leading Influencers Summit 2020

Redefining New Perspectives of Future Innovation

<https://iamacademicconference.com/>

With the unprecedented changes occurring in the world, the downfall in the economy, job markets and all types of industries, resulting in a great loss of lives, finance and consequently loss of motivation, there is a great need for vision, dialogue, new perspectives and reshaping new ways of adaptation in the post pandemic era.

The summit will gather some of the most influential leaders in the world including educationists, pioneer thinkers, and successful business leaders who are at the frontiers of advancement. The conference will cover the latest research findings, current practices, stories of success, and theoretical developments in the fields of business innovation, self-enlightenment, future education and leadership.

Scholars in other disciplines offering new perspectives relevant to the conference theme are also invited to participate. We invite academics and professionals to contribute to the conference by presenting papers, participating in the forum discussions, and attending the workshops

Background & History

The Global Association of Development & Education had one virtual event earlier (The Leading Global Socio-Economic Forum 2020) on the 5th of September of this year.

LGSEF 2020 resulted in collecting over 250 attendees (with their data-base such as emails and contact information) along with a list of experienced speakers from around the world.

The past event has also contributed in boosting the brand image and awareness of the association which will help in attracting more attendees and finding interested sponsors to contribute with their next events and conferences. The association is being managed by a well-experienced team having extensive experience of 15 years in hosting, managing and leading business events and conferences internationally

Event Overview

The association is planning their next event which will take place on mid of November of this year, under the title of

“THE WORLD LEADING INFLUENCERS SUMMIT 2020”

The mission of this conference is to enable people, youth, leaders and influencers to thrive in a complex world and in the post pandemic era, promote global collaboration and partnerships for building a better future and enable self-development. The summit will focus on innovation, entrepreneurship, education, business and self-enlightenment with sessions and panels led by leading global experts. Internal mission is to boost the association’s image and get the right exposure to help with future events, collect data-base of attendees and presenters, partnership with firms and establish foundations in the educational and business summit/conferences industry.

The vision of this conference is to develop a series of conferences and dialogues around the world under one platform for experts to discuss, innovate and to propose new perspectives for the advancement of business, society and professional self-development
