Course Title: Environmental Legal and Other Requirements Training

Course Validity: 2 Days

Validity: Not Applicable

HRD Corp Scheme: Claimable

INTRODUCTION

This training provides participants with comprehensive knowledge of Malaysia's environmental legal framework and organisational obligations under environmental legislation. It covers the Environmental Quality Act (EQA) 1974, subsidiary regulations, licensing requirements, enforcement procedures and relevant guidelines issued by the Department of Environment (DOE). Participants will also learn how to identify, evaluate and comply with "other requirements" including ISO 14001 commitments, client requirements, industry codes, and voluntary environmental frameworks. The programme ensures participants understand how to maintain compliance and support ongoing environmental performance improvement.

OBJECTIVE(S):

- Understand Malaysia's environmental legal structure and governance.
- Identify key requirements under the EQA 1974 and related regulations.
- Recognise licensing, permitting and reporting obligations.
- Evaluate organisational compliance gaps and legal risks.
- Understand "other requirements" such as ISO 14001, client demands and industry standards.
- Implement an environmental legal register and compliance evaluation process.
- Strengthen organisational readiness for DOE inspections and audits.
- Improve continuous compliance and environmental due diligence.
