

TOP 10 REASONS Pet Owners Love Living in the Triangle

1. Plenty of Parks & Trails

Dozens of dog parks and over 180 miles of greenways for daily walks and weekend adventures.

2. Pet-Friendly Homes

From fenced yards to pet amenities in apartments, there are housing options designed with pets in mind.

3. Top Veterinary Care

Home to NC State's nationally ranked vet school plus countless trusted clinics and specialty hospitals.

4. Outdoor Lifestyle

Explore Umstead Park, Jordan Lake, and the Eno River—perfect for hiking and playing with pets.

5. Dining with Dogs

Hundreds of patios, breweries, and cafes across the Triangle welcome four-legged friends.

6. Pet Services Everywhere

Grooming, daycare, bakeries, and boutiques make caring for pets easy and fun.

7. Active Adoption Community

Rescues and shelters like SPCA of Wake County and Independent Animal Rescue bring pet lovers together.

8. Pet-Friendly Events

From festivals to “Yappy Hours,” the Triangle hosts year-round activities for pets and their people.

9. Walkable Neighborhoods

Communities across Raleigh, Durham, Cary, and Chapel Hill are designed with walkability and pets in mind.

10. Lifestyle That Loves Pets

Strong economy, welcoming culture, and a community where pets are truly part of the family.

