

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

HILLSBOROUGH, SS.
SOUTHERN DISTRICT

SUPERIOR COURT
DOCKET NO. 06-M-655

IN THE MATTER OF
GAIL ROSIER AND JEFFREY STROBEL

PROPOSED ORDER

1. The Respondent, Jeffrey Strobel's Petition for Contempt and Request for Show Cause Hearing is hereby granted.
2. The Petitioner, Gail Rosier, is hereby found in contempt in this matter for her failure to pay child support and to abide by the Court's March 15, 2009 Court order.
3. The Petitioner failed to appear for the hearing on December 22, 2009 and March 9, 2010. A capias for her arrest shall be immediately issued. The Petitioner shall make a forthwith lump sum payment of $25,000.00 to the Respondent towards her child support arrearage or be held incarcerated. Should the Petitioner fail to make the lump sum payment, she shall be held incarcerated with a $25,000.00 bail in order to release the capias. The $25,000 shall be paid to the Respondent towards the Petitioner's child support obligation.
4. The Petitioner currently owes $202,500.00 in child support arrearages and accrued interest. She shall pay this amount through the New Hampshire Division of Child Support Services per the attached Uniform Support Order. She shall immediately secure a loan in the amount of the child support arrears to pay for the college expenses of the parties' son, Connor. She shall provide immediate proof in writing to the Respondent of her efforts to secure a loan to pay the child support. She shall attempt to secure the loan and obtain approval no later than April 31, 2010.
5. Should she be unable to secure the loan pursuant to Paragraph 4 of this Order, she shall pay support in accordance with the attached payment schedule.
6. Pursuant to RSA 461-A:14, VII, a lien arises by operation of law for the child support arrearages/judgment owed by the Petitioner. The Respondent shall be entitled to attach any existing or future real and personal property of the Petitioner without further order of the Court as well as be entitled to a wage assignment should the Petitioner become employed.
7. Post-judgment interest on the outstanding child support arrearage of $202,500.00 is hereby ordered in the statutory amount as permitted pursuant to New Hampshire law.

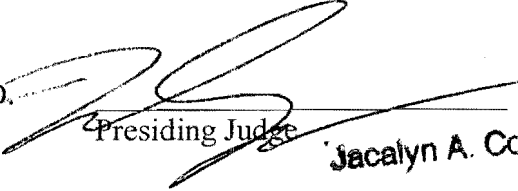

8. The Petitioner shall also reimburse the Respondent the sum of $7,500.00 for funds left for Connor that she spent. She shall reimburse this sum along with the child support arrearage pursuant to Paragraph 4 of this Order.
9. The Respondent shall also be entitled to notify the Maricopa County Probate Court in the matter of Peter R. Rosier's estate, Maricopa County Probate Court Docket No. PB2009-050356, of this order and request that a lien be placed on any proceeds that the Petitioner may be entitled to in order to pay the child support arrearage.
10. The Respondent shall be entitled to contact Social Security to attach/garnish any and all Social Security benefits that the Petitioner may be entitled to in the fullest amount that he may obtain from Social Security. He shall request that Social Security send these benefits directly to the Petitioner.
11. The Petitioner shall provide the Respondent with updated pay check stubs for each and every new employer she may have until her child support obligation is paid in full. Further, she shall provide the Respondent with a copy of her federal and state income tax returns along with all attachments to the returns including W-2 forms each year immediately upon filing her returns with the federal and state governments.
12. The Petitioner has a duty to report all her efforts to seek employment if she is not employed. She shall report weekly in writing to the Division of Child Support Services with a copy to the Respondent and his counsel.
13. The Petitioner failed to pay attorney's fees in the amount of $850.00 from the December 22, 2009 Court Order. She shall pay an additional $350.00 in attorney's fees for her continued attempt.
14. The Petitioner shall promptly notify the Respondent of any change in her address or telephone number, and of any material change in employment as long as there are any continuing obligations under this Order "Material change" shall include but not be limited to any substantial increase or decrease in earnings or other income.
