Not sure how that's fair. I really want to see the transactional history related to the deposit.

Hard to see now because the servers aren't up yet

But Bro, contingency plans always have to be in place. I even do this with my rental properties.

There's no comparison and I was stating that as a shot to you

Wasn't

I'm just generally speaking it's easier when there is no debt servicing on investment proceeds

But wouldn't there be transactional history from trust account to brokerage account?

Peace my Brother. How are you? Hope your week is off to a good start. Couple of questions. 1. Have you talked to Brendon? 2. How is everything going with getting into the trade?

Want You, myself, my wife and Brendon to get on a call to discuss the $20k that remains unreturned to TSMS PROPERTIES, LLC.

You guys available now

Mon, Jul 17 at 2:04 PM

Peace bro! Haven't heard back from you since we discussed writing up a contract Wednesday. I'd like to get this done ASAP.

Peace bro! Sent details to my attorney. He stated he will be sending the agreement to me on Wednesday for submission of digital signatures and attestation agreement for signature. Thanks Understood. Have you talked to Brendon?

I'm not taking another loss out of my pocket without an ROI

There is nothing to talk about at this point for Brendon

I'm moving on with doing business with low performers, family, friends

Brendon should have sent a risk disclosure and since he didn't and doesn't want to step up to the plate I have to go stealth mode at this point.

iMessage

Brother Antonio Personal >

If this was a regular business client I wouldn't have made any exceptions and let Brendon deal with it. Hope this all makes sense

I appreciate all you're trying to do and the level of effort you given on this especially because I'm your brother and since I am really needing those funds to make other moves. I do have a question though

With the new platform highly likely to go live this week, submitting to have the money transferred internally from account to account should be an option to where no one is at a loss?

Peace bro! Just read it and your reply is certainly NOT what we agreed on. You're surprising me by not keeping your word brother. You even went on to say that you'd send the agreement before your son's practice.

We DID agree that something should be in writing now for our assurance as clients that we would be getting our money back. AS Allah is my witness!

Yes, predicated on Shannon giving me the exact date. Let's be honest, you can think what you want to think brother at the end of the day I am not sending an agreement with no date period. Because that agreement can be enforceable and you already know that going to happen if the date passes. At this point I'm not going back and forth and putting god in a business conversation. I agree that something should be in writing and legally agreements have dates.

iMessage

Brother Antonio Personal >

As far as keeping my word you can take it how you want to. I have the call recorded and this is based on a DATE period. That's where I'm at with it at this post long

King

Thanks

What's crazy is I have always come through to indemnify you however the pressure is intense and your not considering that or my obligations and the fact that the forex PAMM has risk

This means I have to flake a consideration for you and not the other Investors

Brother we agreed on inputting 30 days as a tentative time range. You said out of your own mouth again, as Allah is my witness that it would certainly be before 30 days. Just as we did with the Sting account contract. That agreement had no date just a timeframe.

If you both are not willing to wait for me to confirm with Shannon then you will have to sue Brendon while we wait for LOC

Brother, Allah is all up in my business, please know that. How do you think the money came. It wasn't me that made it come.

The what if 30 Days surpasses

Then what

The what if 30 Days surpasses

iMessage

Lol

It's been over 90 days since the sting account agreement. Have I pressed you on that? Just need something in writing stating I'm receiving my money back

Keep in mind, this LOC has nothing to do with your monies. This is what I am willing to do out of the LOC

I know this but still indemnifying via contract is necessary. I can't believe you changed your word bro. Praise be to Allah I'm seeing this though

My attorney stated it wants wise for me to go the contract. He stated to pay out of the LOC voluntarily and that the contract should be done with Brendon's Trust.

You didn't say you were drafting up an agreement before your sons practice?

The fact that your requesting a contract form a brother that has always taken care of you is absurd anyway. My word has always been my bond

But never updated me. Man, this is bad business

If it were just you and I, I would create the agreement but since Monica is involved I'm not going to put a date on an agreement then get inundated with emails

Calm down brother. It's not absurd. You from your own mouth, stated last week, "we don't do anything without a contract."

After this we done bro. You best friends with my enemies

And you talk too much

Just got off a call

Will let you know when LOC hits.

Haha. You can't be done with me cause I've been done with you. And nah, you talk too much, so much so, you lie and forget what you say. In your own words Straight "NIGGATRON"

Yup

You get influenced way too much

It's all good

You'll get your money and I'm off to the races

This dude

Got all my receipts. Will follow up shortly

All this over 20k is crazy

All this over 20k is crazy

It's all good though. I'm glad I know who is who before the finally hits

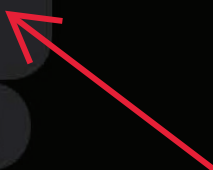

Actually it's 40k and the principles behind how you both did it. Very much BLACK and WHITE devilishment. You and your scheming counterpart preyed on me and couldn't even return the money.

And you should have nothing to say and be ashamed of yourself in texting this way because only the mercy of Allan is keeping me from exposing you and Brendon to the masses and unleashing these alphabet boys on y'all!

Edited

I I'm texting this way because you called me
A criminal on Monday morning. Get your facts straight and keep gos out of this. Your being emotional

Let's do it. You sound uneducated

Alphabet boys don't bite on 40k

Brother Antonio Personal >

Alphabet boys don't bite on 40k bro

So your research

If flawed

Expose us. My power and demise doesn't rely on men because I have good people backing my efforts champ

Remember, your started this and should've prayed this morning and used your words wisely

Keep texting

Men talk not text period

The only thing I want to "talk" about is the return of the funds I was strategically frauded out of. If you don't have dates of when that will happen, there's nothing to talk about

Mon, Sep 18 at 5:57 PM

We will get it resolved stop worrying. We have you updates last
