Brendon replies that he is doing philanthropy work in West Africa when asking him how he is doing. Why? Diversion tactic.

I'm well, thanks and you sir? 11:05 AM ✓✓

 I am fine. I am in West Africa at the moment doing philanthropy work. 11:19 AM

Okay. I'm giving you a last chance to right the wrong done with my money. Anthony already made it known to me that you used my money to pay off

In this message I tell Brendon that Anthony has let me know what he did with the investment money, which is fraud.

Okay. I'm giving you a last chance to right the wrong done with my money. Anthony already made it known to me that you used my money to pay off other investors, which is fraud. TrueBlue has the ability to transfer internally now and you can make it right.

I made the conclusion after TruBlue stated they had no record of the account Shannon and Anthony had setup on the MT5 that they all were playing games and continuing to buy time in returning my principal invest funds of $20k.

This is true but I am not waiting any longer for it to show on my TrueBlue account. Anthony and Shannon stated it should show in 24 hours and be available for withdrawal. This was 9/12/23 when they stated this and now nothing. Someone better make something happen really quickly or else. If you all don't believe me, just watch
