

Return of 20k Funds

Brendon Jackson, Brother Anto...

Friday, July 28, 2023 shortly after many calls with Anthony & Brendon requesting my $20k to be returned, I created a group chat with them both.

Fri, Jul 28

Messages and calls are end-to-end encrypted. No one outside of this chat, not even WhatsApp, can read or listen to them. Tap to learn more.

You created group "Return of 20k Funds"

Anthony leaves the group immediately after adding him.

I'm starting this chat with all parties involved as a partner, witness, or in direct participation in the sending of $20,000 USD via wire from [redacted] to Masters Business Alliance trust 3/6/23 in which we are still seeking the return of said funds. We will be following up via email.

Added Anthony back to the group by personal number.

Yes, as stated in our previous call, please remit to Anthony your agreement about getting your funds returned and we will both work to get that done for you.

Brendon replies back but never kept his word and made an effort to return the $20k he owed me.

TruBlueFX, July 28 Update,

Thank you to everyone for your patience as we get through all your requests, we have been bombarded with many compliments and questions, our team is putting in countless hours to get you responses promptly.

We would like to address a few commonly asked questions and point out a few timelines for everyone to acknowledge.

- Internal fund movement is restricted until we get all payment processing and liquidity connected. Our goal is in the next few weeks.
  - Once your KYC is approved this DOES NOT mean you will be able to place a withdrawal or move funds internally just yet. Read the bullet point above, that's the timeline.

Are you aware of the below statement and projected timeline of funds movement in the new Trublue brokerage?

Look at Brendon's replies to my messages, he never denies owing me $20k that I sent to him and requested to be returned.
