

$1 MILLION REWARD

MISSING MUM - MARION BARTER

AKA FLORABELLA REMAKEL

MISSING SINCE 1997 - AGED 51 – Today she would be 80!

On 22nd June 1997, award-winning schoolteacher from the Gold Coast, Marion was dropped off at a bus stop at Southport by her friend before heading to Brisbane International Airport flying on Korean Air to the UK and Europe via Korea / Japan for an intended yearlong holiday. At the time we were not aware she was having a secret relationship with a man. At Marion's inquest, NSW State Coroner referred to this man as a person of 'significant interest', with ties to Ballina. Multiple women have come forward with similar experiences with the same convicted conman, who has over 52 different aliases.

Only 6 weeks of her yearlong holiday, on August 2nd, 1997, her passport came back through Brisbane International Airport under the new name Florabella Natalia Marion REMAKEL – now married.

Mid-August 1997 $5000 a day was withdrawn from her bank account in Byron Bay and Burleigh Heads QLD for approx. 3.5 weeks

On August 13th, 1997, her Medicare card was used at OPSM at Grafton Shopping World, Northern NSW

On the 15th of October 1997, $80,000 was electronically transferred from her bank account to an unknown account. The findings into Marion's disappearance ruled she died on or around this date in 1997.

There is now a 1-million-dollar reward for information that leads to an arrest regarding her disappearance.
