

New California is the formation of a new state being established by egregiously aggrieved Californians exercising our Constitutional right to form a new state separate from the tyranny of the State of California.

That, whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and To institute new Government, laying its foundation on such Principles and organizing its Powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their Safety and Happiness.

New California Plan

As defined in Article IV, Section 3 of the US Constitution, there is only one way to create a new State:

New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union, but no new State shall be formed or erected within the Jurisdiction of any other State, nor any State be formed by the Junction of two or more States, or Parts of States, without the consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress.

The Need for New California

The U.S. Declaration of Independence of 1776, the Alta California Declaration of independence of 1836, and the Sonoma Proclamation of 1846 declared the Right of the People in the states of Alta California and California respectively (present day California) to throw off the bonds of tyranny.

Vision and Mission of New California

Vision—New California Statehood

Mission—bring about the conditions to initiate New California Statehood.

Constitutional Authority To Act

The current state of California has become governed by a tyranny, which rivals those stated above. It is time to take action. The Duty of the People who are suffering the long train of abuses and usurpations at the hands of a tyrannical government is to abolish and make new a government by the People and for the people under GOD.

State Splitting Process of California

The process begins when a state’s legislature first votes to split the state. Once the measure, in the form of a resolution, passes both the California Assembly and Senate, it is submitted to Congress.

U.S. Congress

Once there, the matter is discussed. If both houses of the United States’ Government vote to pass it, the state can then be split. There are two options for how a state can split. In the first instance, the state decides how it’s going to be split before sending the proposal to Congress, or decided after approval is given.

Forming Our New State

We are currently creating the New California Government with 40 Counties.

New California shall be a Constitutional State and shall follow the U.S. Declaration of Independence, Constitution, and Bill of Rights.

New California will be a Right-to-Work State and ensure the least restrictive Business and Economic Environment, the highest Education Standards, and the most Secure Living Environment of the 51 States of the Union. From the current 343 government agencies in California, New California will have less than 150 government agencies.

Legal and Constitutional

We have a legal pathway to New California following the U.S. Constitution’s Article IV, Section 3.

Declaration of Independence

To have a viable New California Constitution the Declaration of Independence for New California must work in tandem with the New California Constitution. A day of Independence will be announced to declare our intent to separate from the State of California following the provisions of Article 4 Section 3 of the U.S. Constitution. Serving as the Will of the People, the Day of Independence will be the first step in the process necessary to establish the New California Constitutional Convention.

New California’s Commitment to Act

At all times representatives from New California will stand ready to work with California State representatives and Federal representatives to complete the separation process in an orderly fashion, following all federal and state laws

New California

Constitution

During the process of the Declaration, a Constitutional Convention will be convened with the representatives of counties of New California. The New California Constitution shall be consistent with the U.S. Constitution and the Declaration of Independence. Ratification of the Constitution shall also serve as the Will of the People in New California.

Legislature

The New California Legislature will be tasked with representation of their respective counties to the Legislature and will be actively engaged in all matters leading to statehood. The Legislature will be established as a part time legislature.

Establishment of State Governance

A Council of Counties Committee, comprised of representatives from the County Committees, will be tasked to establish Legislative, Judiciary, and Executive. Declaration of Independence and Constitution for New California. The three branches of government shall be established: Legislative, Judicial & Executive.

Establishment of Local Governance

County Committees will be established in all counties who want to join the New California State Movement. These County Committees will serve as local governance centers and shall be directly involved with the New California State movement activities. Representatives from each county will be selected to represent their respective counties on the Council of Counties Committee. The County Committees will be instrumental in establishing local autonomy and outreach in their respective counties. County Committees will serve as the basis for a Legislature.
