

NATIVITY ACADEMY
AT SAINT BONIFACE

Associate Board

Are you a talented, enthusiastic young professional looking to get involved in a life changing organization making a difference in the Louisville community?

Nativity Academy at St. Boniface is an independent, faith-based middle school in Louisville dedicated to transforming the lives of students who have a commitment to achievement and whose families demonstrate financial need. Nativity supports the entire life of our bright and motivated students from morning classes to afternoon study and enrichment. We offer support during the summer months, and serve as a resource for students and their families all the way through high school and college.

The Associate Board was created to engage a diverse group of young professionals in furthering the mission of Nativity Academy and designed specifically with emerging leaders in mind.

The benefits offered for an Associate Board Member include:

- o Opportunity to gain Board experience
- o Build leadership skills
- o Cultivate relationships with current and up-and-coming community leaders
- o Contribute to making your community a better place by supporting low income students and their families in achieving a quality education
- o Standout as a leader and valuable employee

Why Does Nativity Want You?

- o New ideas, energy, and expertise
- o Increased diversity
- o To build Nativity's base of donors and supporters
- o Expand awareness of Nativity Academy among other young professionals in our community
