Bien recycler pour limiter les déchets
On appelle ça la « responsabilité élargie des producteurs ». Le principe est simple : un industriel ou un distributeur qui vend un produit à son client doit reprendre quand il est usé ou cassé afin de le recycler... (question 16)... C'est ainsi qu'ont été récoltés l'an dernier en Belgique plus de 800 millions d'euros. La méthode fait florès avec aujourd'hui une dizaine de filières en activité. ... (question 17)... Les lampes et les textiles utilisent, eux, l'apport volontaire en magasin. Des efforts restent à faire pour réduire drastiquement le volume de déchets. Chaque Belge produit 590 kilos d'ordures ménagères par an, soit deux fois plus qu'il y a quarante ans. ... (question 18)... Il s'agit de boire l'eau du robinet, de réparer ses appareils électriques, d'opter pour les piles rechargeables... Et enfin, donner les objets dont on n'a plus besoin pour qu'ils soient recyclés.

This part of the test is designed to assess your ability to read a written text, understand it and process the information. You will need to understand simple documents, press articles, the organization of a text and the general meaning of a sentence. It is not a test of your knowledge of a subject. How can you succeed in the Reading comprehension test? To succeed in this test, it is necessary to regularly read all types of texts (newspaper articles, excerpts from novels, classified ads, cooking recipes, etc.) on a variety of topics. This will allow you to read quickly, to locate important information and to enrich your vocabulary. All of this will help you reinforce what you have learned and give you confidence on the day of the test. Also we suggest you to: 1. Read the whole document2. Read all answer options before answering3. Reread your answers before validating the test In this post we offer you TEF Compréhension Ecrite Section B exercises, so you can prepare for the Reading part of the test.
