Dine with purpose: LuLu's Kitchen at St. Matthew's House hosts "Chef's Night Out" Nov. 18

A four-course dinner showcases the talents of Executive Chef Joe Marosek and St. Matthew's House's culinary team

NAPLES (Oct. 27) -- LuLu's Kitchen at St. Matthew's House will host a "Chef's Night Out" four-course dinner on Thursday, November 18, featuring the talents of LuLu's Executive Chef Joe Marosek and his culinary team.

The dinner will be held in the expansive café at LuLu's Kitchen, 2125 Airport Road South, Naples, beginning at 6 p.m. and is priced at $125 per person. The event benefits the nonprofit St. Matthew's House.

Drawing inspiration from global cuisines, Chef Marosek's menu features seafood ceviche; burrata with Romanesco sauce and bacon jam; rack of lamb with Middle Eastern-flavored sides and sauces, and lemon mousse for dessert.

Other highlights of the evening are the unique beverages created by organic fruit mixologist Mariel Goodrich, owner of Isle Bartend, a concierge bartending service that specializes in organic fresh fruit mixology and cocktails and mocktails made with low sugars. Goodrich will create specialty beverages as well as signature mocktails in honor of the event.

Reservations are available at Eventbrite by searching for LuLu's Chef's Night Out. For information, call LuLu's Kitchen at 239-774-5858.

St. Matthew's House & LuLu's Kitchen

- Well-known for its mission-driven work fighting hunger, homelessness, addiction, and poverty, St. Matthew's House provides physical, spiritual and emotional guidance toward a transformed life.

Lulu's Kitchen is a new 8,000-square-foot, free-standing facility that is headquarters of St. Matthew's House culinary operations. Lulu's houses catering operations (Delicious by Design), a full-service restaurant (Fresh Start Cafe), production of all community mission meals, and is also home to a culinary training program.

Through a unique business model, the St. Matthew's House brand of social enterprises includes, in addition to LuLu's Kitchen, six thrift stores, a full-service car wash, and the Port LaBelle Inn and Conference Center. These stand-alone businesses allow 100% of all donations to be used solely for mission-driven programs.
