Welcome to Sea Ranch Jewelry by Karen Anderson, the brand of custom hand-crafted accessories that you love to wear every day. My designs are my own, and every piece is individually made-to-order, just for you, in my sunny studio on the coast of Maine, USA. I am so lucky to have a husband that fosters my creativity and two extraordinary daughters here in Maine! In addition to my work being overseen by a very demanding studio cat, my pet-parent life has been blessed to include dogs, horses, and miniature donkeys.

Our My Tribe line of Judaica jewelry takes our most popular designs and amplifies them with the addition of fabulous Jewish and faith-based beads and charms. You will find My Tribe accessories are simply perfect for "members of the Tribe" of any age and style.

Although I design and create each item here in Maine, my components are sourced from across the world; US, European and South American suppliers plus Asian distributors. Furthermore, I am honored to include gorgeous handmade and fair-traded elements into my work. These include upcycled glass made by Krobo artisans in Ghana, Ecuadorian tagua, and Ethiopian and Nepali beads and pendants.

2025 is Sea Ranch's 10th anniversary! Since launching in 2015, my goal has been to design and create exceptional casual jewelry you love to wear every day. I hope you like what you see!
