

CARNEGIE CONCERT:

COLLECTIVE ACCORD

Friday, March 7, 7:30 pm

The Collective Accord (formerly the Nyack Community Chorus' Women's Ensemble) is an auditioned ensemble of experienced vocalists. Established in 2019, the group has been through many iterations. At present, they are 8 singers strong, performing an eclectic array of works from contemporary songwriters, arrangers and the American Songbook. In addition, their extensive work in improvisation has afforded them the opportunity to further expand their repertoire. The Collective Accord is most honored to be performing in Nyack Library's beautiful Carnegie Room, and excited to share an evening of song.
