

DEBBI'S DANCE ETC

and PAAWW are proud to present:

Specialty Work Showcase

Featuring Solo, Duo, Trio, Small Group and Student Choreography from the 2018/19 dance season!

Participants will have the opportunity to show work normally reserved for the competition stage. Three student choreography pieces and three "People's Choice" winners will be selected to perform at one of the Debbi's Dance, Etc. 2019 Dance Spectacular Shows at the Washington Center for the Performing Arts, June 22-23.

("People's Choice" will be determined by ballot at the showcase.

All ticket holders will receive one ballot to vote for their favorite solo, duo/trio or small group. Student choreography entries are not eligible for People's Choice.)

Saturday, June 1, 2019, Time TBD

SPSCC's Kenneth J. Minnaert Center Mainstage

Tickets: $10 Adult/$8 Students and Seniors
(price includes facility $3 service fee)

Participation fee: $40 per entry (duo/trio/group members to split fee).

Entry forms will be available starting in April and the deadline for entries is Wed, May 1st.

Please note: It is expected that all participants attend regular private lessons with their teacher during the month of May to help ensure a polished performance.

Student Choreography Guidelines: 2:45 minute time limit. Any style of dance, use of props and gymnastics, solo, duo, trio and group entries are all permitted. There can be no repetition of musical selections from other Debbi's Dance routines and no repetition of major dance combinations. Student choreography routines will be judged on creativity/originality, interpretation/musicality, dance combinations/use of space/levels and overall impression. Age divisions will be determined once all entry fees are submitted. If needed, studio rooms are available to rent at the rate of $25/hour during studio business hours (adult must be present and will assume responsibility for dancers and equipment.) See Andrea for scheduling details.
