

Rasheed Ali Cromwell, Esq. | President, The Harbor Institute™ | he, him

As a proud 4-generation Historically Black College and University (HBCU) graduate, Rasheed utilizes his rich family history and cultural heritage to bridge gaps, increase understanding and understanding to promote positive change. His authentic, passionate, and supportive style connects with audiences nationwide as he empowers them to have courageous conversations around difficult topics relating to race and diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI).

He has utilized his extensive experience as an attorney, consultant, and speaker/trainer to serve as the primary content developer for Brave and Bold Dialogues™, a 60-minute e-learning module developed in partnership with Prevent.Zone by AliveTek that is utilized by over 10,000 college students nationwide. Fraternal organizations along with over two dozen universities utilize this innovative program.

His work has been highlighted in Essence magazine's feature on social justice in Black Greek Sororities (July 2015, Reality v. Roots), Ebony (March 2017) and he has been the recipient of awards from both the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA) and the Association of Fraternity/Sorority Advisors (AFA) for his work in the areas of curriculum development as it relates to leadership development and students of color.

Through the Harbor Institute he speaks at over 300 colleges and universities in 45 states across the country on topics such as cultural empowerment, diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI), hazing prevention and leadership development.

As President of the Harbor Group of Companies \(HGC\): The Harbor Institute, Harbor NEXT! and Harbor EDGE! he partners with universities, organizations, and companies to enhance their DEI efforts in the areas of strategic consulting, DEI audits, custom curriculum development, brand awareness, talent acquisition and professional development.