We help you tackle hard to talk about topics through in-depth & engaging conversations.

Our Courageous Conversations Series engages your entire community in an inclusive and welcoming environment!

Title IX and sexual violence prevention training can be "preachy."

Engaging the audience and keeping it "real" empowers students to answer the call to action.

The presenter utilizes this authentic approach to provide a powerful platform for change.

This unique opportunity allows for meaningful exchanges, group activities and self-reflection exercises that are designed to address actual situations for a difficult topic.

Share this interactive experience with your campus today!
