She was just 18 years old when she died of a drug overdose.

“The fall after we graduated from high school, Victoria and I moved into an apartment. We hoped that living together would help Victoria get off drugs and get her act together.... It didn’t work.”

“Before my eyes, Victoria was spiraling further out of control. I felt paralyzed to help her. I tried hiding her diary and getting her out of the apartment. Nothing seemed to help.”

“A Friend’s Loss”
