Vision Statement: At Grace, we strive to Guide and nurture all individuals to be Resilient, Accepting Children of God rooted in the Enrichment of God's word.

Welcome to Worship: We encourage visitors to talk with our pastor following worship! Know that you are always welcome to join us for worship! If you are interested in becoming a member at any time, please contact the pastor.

Communion Instruction: Jesus Christ, present in this Meal of bread and wine, invites every person to share in Holy Communion, especially children. Ushers will direct you to the front, where you will come forward in an orderly fashion, receive a piece of bread, and then select either the red wine or the white grape juice and return to your seat. Gluten-free wafers are also available; talk to the pastor if you require gluten-free. If you would prefer not to commune today, you are welcome to come forward with your hands crossed to receive a blessing instead. If you would like your children to receive communion instruction prior to sharing in this Meal, please talk with the pastor before or after worship.

Offering: Offerings are not taken during worship. There is an offering plate at the back of the sanctuary and one near the front for you to drop an offering when you come up for communion. You may also scan the QR code on this page to give online.

Hearing Assistance Available: This facility is equipped with a hearing-assistance system. Please see an usher for assistance.

Nursery Available: We love to have children in worship with us. For those that play quietly there is a space for them to play with quiet toys in worship (the Pray-ground). A separate staffed nursery is provided for healthy children that are more active and like to be a bit louder.

WELCOME

WELCOME TO WORSHIP (Men's Chorus) Nancy Raabe (arr.) "In a Lowly Manger Born" (2014; 2015, adapted by Christopher Aspas) – Tunes: Mabune, O dass ich tausend Zungen hätte

Vs. 1 In a lowly manger born, humble life began in scorn;
Under Joseph's watchful eye, Jesus grew as you and I;
Knew the suff'rings of the weak, knew the patience of the meek;
Hungered as but poor folk can; this is He. Behold the man!

Vs. 2 Oh, that I had a thousand voices to praise my God with thousand tongues!
My heart, which in the Lord rejoices, would then proclaim in grateful songs
To all, to all wherever I might be, what great things God has done for me!

Vs. 3 Visiting the lone and lost, steadyng the tempest tossed,
Giving of Himself in love, calling minds to things above.
Sinners gladly hear His call; publicans before Him fall,
For in Him new life began, this is He. Behold the man!

Vs. 4 Then to rescue you and me, Jesus died upon the tree.
See in Him God's love revealed; by His passion we are healed.
Now He lives in glory bright, lives again in pow'r and might;
Come and take the path He trod, son of Mary, son of God.

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

P: Blessed be the Holy Trinity ...and our salvation. C: Amen.

P: Joined to Christ...now and forever. C: Amen.

GREETING

P: The grace of our Lord... be with you all. C: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray. (Silence is kept for reflection) Holy God...Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

C: Amen.

FIRST READING: Micah 6:1-8

¹ Hear what the LORD says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. ² Hear, you mountains, the case of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth, for the LORD has a case against his people, and he will contend with Israel. ³ "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me! ⁴ For I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. ⁵ O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the LORD."

⁶ "With what shall I come before the LORD and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? ⁷ Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?" ⁸ He has told you, O mortal, what is good, and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God?

L: Word of God. Word of life. C: Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 15

LORD, who may a - bide up - on your ho - ly hill?

L: LORD, who may dwell in your tabernacle? Who may abide upon your holy hill?

C: Those who lead a blameless life and do what is right, who speak the truth from their heart; R

L: they do not slander with the tongue, they do no evil to their friends; they do not cast discredit upon a neighbor.

C: In their sight the wicked are rejected, but they honor those who fear the LORD. They have sworn upon their health and do not take back their word.

L: They do not give their money in hope of gain, nor do they take bribes against the innocent.
Those who do these things shall never be overthrown. R

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 1:18-31

¹⁸ The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written,

“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.”

²⁰ Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹ For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of the proclamation, to save those who believe. ²² For Jews ask for signs and Greeks desire wisdom, ²³ but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to gentiles, ²⁴ but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ For God’s foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God’s weakness is stronger than human strength.

²⁶ Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. ²⁷ But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; ²⁸ God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to abolish things that are, ²⁹ so that no one might boast in the presence of God. ³⁰ In contrast, God is why you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, ³¹ in order that, as it is written, “Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.”

L: Word of God. Word of Life. C: Thanks be to God.

C: Glory to You, O Lord. (The gospel is announced)

⁵ “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. ⁶ “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. ⁷ “Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. ⁸ “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. ⁹ “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. ¹⁰ “Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Music Notes:

As the Last Prelude, the Men's Chorus presents a two-part setting of some seasonal hymns by Nancy Raabe, clergywoman, scholar and musician, who has served Lutheran congregations in Ohio, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania. She is past President of the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, the professional organization to which Mr. Dearing belongs. She was the classical music critic for the Milwaukee Sentinel.

Both text and tun of the Hymn of the Day are by Bernadette Farrell (b. 1957), a liturgical composer in Great Britain. She has been involved in the church's renewal since the Second Vatican Council and was a founding member of the St. Thomas More Group in London.

The Prelude and Postlude are taken from Psalm Meditations for Piano by John Carter. He was born in 1930 in Nashville, TN and holds a Master of Music degree from Peabody College. He and his wife, Mary Kay Beall, collaborate in Music Ministry. He is a well-known composer of music for choir and keyboard, known for his versatile style and creativity.

Grace's Welcome Statement: Grace Lutheran Church is a religious community that celebrates the gifts of God that empower us to engage in the struggles of life, to care for each other, and to serve Christ where we work and live. Grace is a "Reconciling in Christ" congregation, which means we welcome the participation of people of all ages, races, ethnic backgrounds, sexual orientations, gender identities, education backgrounds, and economic conditions – all who want to join us in serving God, proclaiming our faith, and caring for all creation.

February Good News: If you do not use an email or requested a hard copy of the newsletter, please stop by the communication desk and pick up your copy. Thank you!

Tables of Eight: Tables of Eight is a great way to get to know members of our church community in a smaller more intimate setting. You will be invited to share some food and conversation with other members of the community for fellowship and connection. If you are interested in being a guest at one of these meals, please sign up on the sheet on the welcome center or call the church office. (Times and dates will vary depending on the availability of the host and the attendees. Please keep an eye on your email for information.)

Lenten Book Discussion: Our Congregational Constitution states that scripture is "...the authoritative source and norm of (the congregation's) proclamation, faith, and life." Our congregation has always trusted in the Word of God and the Word of God for its direction and faith. In our world today (as is the history of humanity) people have taken the scriptures and used them to harm, dominate, and oppress others. Zach Lambert has written a great book entitled, Better Ways to Read the Bible: Transforming a Weapon of Harm Into a Tool of Healing. This Lent we will be offering a discussion on this book and its material. If you wish to purchase the book, you are welcome to, but the book will not be needed for the study. This study will meet on Wednesday mornings at 10:30am (2/25, 3/4, 3/11, 3/18, and 3/25) and Thursday evenings at 6:45pm (2/26, 3/5, 3/12, 3/19, and 3/26). You are free to attend either Wednesday or Thursday. The same material will be covered at both sessions each week. Also, if you can only attend a few of these sessions that is okay. There will be lots to talk about and learn as we grow to use the scriptures for good.

Pastor's Patio Ponderings Topics? Pastor Bill will once again be offering his summer program, Pastor's Patio Ponderings. The dates and times for these one night, one topic studies will be set at a later moment. Right now, Pastor is looking for topics for the Pastor's Patio Ponderings. Perhaps there is a certain book of the Bible you would like to know more about. Perhaps you have a question about faith and life? If you have a suggestion for PPP, please let the pastor know by the end of February.

Chili Cook-off/Pie Auction: Make and bring your favorite homemade chili and/or pie. Please bring a list of the ingredients in the chili for our gluten free friends to choose safely. The Cook-off and pie auction will take place on February 22 following worship. Our own Brian Karthaus will be the auctioneer. String-A-Long will be providing the entertainment! Please sign up at the Communication Desk. See the Community Life Team with questions.

Kleenex Offering: It is that time of year again! Every 6 or 7 years we do a Kleenex offering, which has been a huge success, and an important ministry in our congregation. These boxes of Kleenex have been a blessing to many. We are down to our last few boxes since we did this the last time in 2020. So, we're going to have another Kleenex offering to replenish our supply. When you are out and about, please consider purchasing some extra Kleenex and donating it to the church. You can bring them with you if you come for worship or you can drop them off at any time during the day. Thank you for your help and participation in this important ministry.
