

AUTISM ACCEPTANCE MONTH WITH SHORE MEDICAL CENTER

Discussing acceptance, compassionate care, and treatment for our neurodiverse community members

Tuesday, April 28, 2026 • 11:45 am – 1:45 pm

Linwood Country Club
500 Shore Road, Linwood, NJ 08221

ABOUT THIS EVENT

The PR Council of Greater Atlantic City is pleased to welcome Sherri Richmond and Brian Cahill of Shore Medical Center as speakers at the PR Council's upcoming event on April 28. In recognition of Autism Acceptance Month, their presentation will highlight how Shore Medical Center worked with the community to advance compassionate, inclusive care for neurodiverse individuals.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

Sherri Richmond

serves as Administrative Director of the Emergency Department, Pediatrics, and Respiratory Services at Shore Medical Center and brings 37 years of nursing experience to her leadership role. She has been a driving force behind Shore's patient-centered initiatives, particularly those focused on creating supportive environments for neurodiverse patients and their families.

Brian Cahill

is Shore Medical Center's Administrative Director of Marketing and Public Relations, with 34 years of experience in healthcare marketing, including the past 11 years at Shore. In addition to sharing Shore's story with the community, Brian has played a key role in helping secure funding and community support for Shore's sensory care initiatives, working alongside clinical leaders to bring these programs to life.
