MEET DINA BRADY

A lifelong resident of western Prince William and Fauquier Counties, Dina Brady brings more than real estate expertise — she brings deep roots, lasting relationships, and genuine care to every client she serves.

Her focus on rightsizing grew from a passion for helping people move through life's transitions with confidence, clarity, and dignity. Whether guiding empty nesters ready to simplify or families helping aging parents find the right next step, Dina takes a hands-on, heart-first approach to every move.

She believes that selling or buying a home is never just about square footage — it's about finding comfort, connection, and purpose in your next chapter.

With a background tied to local small businesses, schools, and community life, Dina's reputation is built on trust, communication, and a deep understanding of what "home" really means in western Prince William and Fauquier Counties.

When she's not helping clients find home, you'll find Dina cheering at a local hockey rink, visiting a favorite Virginia winery, or supporting the small businesses that make her hometowns special.
