Put uncooked eggs directly on the grill and cook at 225° for 45 minutes. Turning them is not required if you have the lid closed, but you can turn them 3 times during the first 15 minutes of grilling to center the yolk if you are going to use them for something fancy like deviled eggs. When you remove the eggs, put them into an ice water bath to stop the cooking process.

DUTCH OVEN ICE CREAM submitted by James Menard

1(3.4 oz) pack Instant Pudding, flavor of your choice		1/2 tbsp Vanilla
2 c. Heavy Cream, separated	1/4 tsp Lemon Juice	1 c. Milk
1 Egg	½ c. sugar	1 can (12 oz) Evaporated Milk (chilled)
Heavy Wooden paddle or spoon with straight edge for scraping
Kitchen Timer	Mixing Bowl	10 in or 12 in Dutch Oven with Lid

Chilling container to hold Ice. (Dutch Oven must fit inside with room to pack Ice around it.)

Place Dutch Oven into container filled with alternate layers of ice and salt to chill. Mix together pudding, 1 c. cream and milk. Set aside to thicken. In separate bowl, mix sugar, egg, vanilla and lemon juice. Add to pudding mix, stir well. Pour into Chilled Dutch Oven. Add 1 c. heavy cream & evaporated milk. Stir until smooth. Place lid on Dutch Oven. Pack ice and salt on lid of pot. Set kitchen timer to 10 minutes. Stir and scrap sides of Pot. Repeat every 5 min until ice cream is frozen to your liking.

NOTES: *Do not neglect stirring. Do not get salted water or ice inside ice cream. Wipe pot edges before placing lid back on to avoid freezing. As ice melts, dip water out of chilling container so that it doesn't get into ice cream. Add ice and salt if necessary to maintain freezing. A single recipe yields about 1 ½ quarts (6 cups) *A double batch will fit in 12 inch Dutch Oven, will take longer to turn and is a little harder to stir by hand. *This recipe can be used in your electric ice cream maker. A double recipe easily fits in a 3 quart machine.

PECAN PIE BROWNIES submitted by Shannon Neveux

40 oz Brownie mix or 2 regular size mixes
(plus ingredients listed on package)

Pecan Pie Filling:

1 c. sugar	1 1/2 c. corn syrup
4 eggs	1/4 c. unsalted butter (melted)
1 1/2 tsp vanilla	2 c. pecans (chopped)

Preheat oven to 350°. Mix brownies according to the package instructions. Pour brownie batter into a greased 13 x 9 in pan and bake for 25-30 min.

If baking in a 12 in. Dutch Oven, take care that batter does not touch the lid. May have to cook a little longer. While baking, combine sugar, syrup, eggs, butter and vanilla. Mix well. Stir in pecans. After 25-30 min, pour the pecan pie filling over brownies. Bake 30-40 min or until the filling is only slightly jiggly in the middle when you move the pan. Let cool completely to room temperature before cutting. This will be 'gooey'! For 12 in. Dutch Oven use 25 coals, 17 on top/ 8 on bottom. You may have to replace or add coals for second bake.

SHEPARD'S PIE submitted by Vance Perkins

2 lbs. ground beef
1lb. ground pork sausage
1 onion chopped
2-14.5 oz cans mixed vegetables
1-14.5 can beef broth
2 Tbsp Worcestershire sauce (Adjust to your taste)
Salt, Pepper, Cajun Seasoning (I use NuNu's) to taste
2 cups shredded cheddar cheese
5lbs. Potatoes (prepared as per favorite mashed potato recipe)

Brown and drain meats and set aside. Sauté onion until soft. Add meats to sautéed onions along with beef broth, Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper and Cajun seasoning. Mix together well and simmer until mixture is as dry as you like. Add drained mixed vegetables and mix well. Top with mashed potatoes. Bake at 350° for 30 minutes or until hot throughout. Top with cheese and bake until cheese is melted. This recipe is for oval Dutch oven. Adjust for smaller or larger Camping Dutch Oven. The measurements are very forgiving, adjust to personal taste. Some like soupy meat mixture, I like mine drier. Original recipe is all ground beef, I'm from the south, I added some Jimmy Dean to my meat mixture. Experiment! Sometimes, I add extra can of corn to mix, or maybe some sweet peas or butter beans instead of mixed vegetables. Have fun and enjoy. Nothing like cooking, especially in cast iron for family and friends.
