About ProEasy

In a world where hygiene, cleanliness and presentation define the reputation of every professional establishment, having the right cleaning products is not a luxury — it is a necessity. ProEasy was founded on a simple but powerful belief: that professional-grade cleaning solutions should be accessible, effective and reliable for every business, regardless of size.

Our Mission

At ProEasy, our mission is straightforward: to engineer cleaning and hygiene products that outperform the competition in every measurable way — strength, efficiency, value and reliability. Every formula in our range is developed and rigorously tested to meet the demanding standards of commercial and industrial environments, from the busiest restaurant kitchens to the most hygiene-critical healthcare facilities.

What Sets Us Apart

ProEasy products are not household products dressed up in professional packaging. Each product in our lineup is an industrial-grade formulation built specifically for the pressures of commercial use — where performance is non-negotiable, where quantities are large, and where downtime is not an option. Our range covers large aspect of professional cleaning and hygiene: dishwashing, disinfection, degreasing, glass care, floor and surface cleaning, stainless steel care, liquid hand soap, waste management and personal protection.

Who We Serve

Our products are trusted daily by a wide range of professional environments across Europe, including chains of restaurants, cafes, catering companies, food processing facilities, retail spaces and professional cleaning contractors. Whether you operate a single restaurant or manage a large multi-site hospitality group, the ProEasy range is designed to scale with your needs — delivering consistent, outstanding results every single time.

Our Promise to You

Every product that carries the ProEasy name has been formulated to do more — to clean deeper, protect longer, last further and perform better than comparable products on the market. We do not cut corners and we do not compromise on quality. When you choose ProEasy, you are choosing a partner that understands the demands of your business and delivers the solutions to meet them — day after day, shift after shift.

ProEasy — Cleaning Made Effortless.
