

'Jubilation as a Nation' By Judith Cook

June is here,
let us celebrate with a beer.
We cannot break tradition,
so don't forget to cheer!

As our queen celebrates her 70th year,
we all declare "here here!"
A long time has passed since we had reason to smile,
so lets not forget,
we went the extra mile.

Holidays are not far from our mind,
but the cost of living is robbing us blind.
There is always a strike, or some price hike,
as we kindly reply "yea on yer bike!"

We try to keep our Jubilation,
that's what we do here as a nation.
Keep on the right track
as our train takes us to the station.

We keep calm and carry on,
stiff upper lip with a sherbet dip.
Our Queen of the castle knows how to deal with daily hassle,
"off with their head" they used to cry,
today's society is more like "let's give um a try".

Let us hope that June is bustin out all over,
as we could all end up being shipped to Dover.
Whatever your celebrations may be,
a street party or just streetwise,
do not forget keep your eyes on the prize,
as TOMBOLA our British tradition is always a welcome addition.
