

DOORSOFDESTINY Round-up

JUBILEE POEM

Judith Cook released a special Poem in June to mark the Queen's celebration, 'Jubilation as a Nation' You can find a copy at: <https://mydoorsofdestiny.com/june-2022>

Each month, Judith releases a new Poem.

MENOPAUSE MATTERS TO JUBILEE JUDY!

On Sunday 5th June 2022, Brampton Community Centre held a special event to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, and our very own Judith Cook was invited as guest singer & entertainer.

The crowd were up for it, all dressed in White, Red and Blue and certainly very geared up for what was a very entertaining afternoon.

The well coordinated event was organised by Parish Councillors Allison Riddell, Margaret Blake, Jane Thompson and Stephen Quinn. Special thanks goes to James Burke of Brampton Community Centre. The highlight was for 'Judy' to perform some 'classics', which definately ensured the guests were on their feet dancing with arms in the air waving! Classics such as 'Sweet Caroline' were enjoyed.

Also a 'Jubilation to the Nation' quiz was held, all created by Judith herself. Above all this, a delicious afternoon tea was provided and devoured.

Judith is a self acclaimed born singer and entertainer from oldham and has travelled all over, to simply entertain people. She is now raising the awareness and support out there for people suffering with the Menopause. Her book, My Doors Of Destiny is a biograpghy of her life and how she suffered with the Menopause, but is now surviving.

"This event was 'up there' with them all", said Judith. "I sincerely thank everyone at Brampton that afternoon and all organisers involved for allowing me to be their special feature. It was something Brampton residents needed after the two years they have had."

