

My Spiritual Singer

By Judith Cook

Who is she my spiritual singer?
She sings from her heart,
As it beats like a drum.
She folds her hands together,
As she sings the words 'Om Om Om'.

She is like a wind chime singing in the breeze,
While your spiritual heart beats, life with ease.

Listen to the spiritual singer,
While you feel the joys that linger.
Open your heart while your voice fills the air,
The spirits are with you with angels that care.

Your spirited singer relieves your pain,
She sings about joy and love, with nothing to gain.
Only her smile and voice is her aim.

Whoever she is her spirit is to share,
She sings to whoever is willing to care.
While others pray and meditate,
Her life is her voice of which is her choice.

The beat of the drum as you hear her 'Om',
Our spiritual singer will live on and on!
