

'December Divides' By Judith Cook

It's December folks and we have no Jokes
as the world is full of woke!

As we all reflect
we can only detect as we sigh oh My Oh my Oh my.

Santa Claus has had to pause as toys this year are sparce it's just another farce!!!

Where is our HO HO HO
I can tell you that, it's sat next to
NO NO NO!!!!

Where are our Holly and Mistletoe?
Holly she is off being Jolly.
Mistletoe and Wine now they're on a curfew till nine.

The Christmas Spirit is in demand but you'll need a grand in yer hand.

Let's not forget our Christmas Angels,
Jesus and Mary oh how contrary!
I don't mean Mary from the dairy.

Our children are what christmas means they are filled with hopes and dreams
If they laugh they are happy if they scream then mummy or daddy give them some more Ice-Cream.

Merry Christmas To you all
Let's not forget to have a ball.
Give yersel a break with a big fat piece of Christmas Cake!!!!

Christmas Greetings,
From Judith Cook
(She has written a book!)
