

'Joyous July'
By Judith Cook

Joy in July, I will tell you why?
With a glint in the eye tiz better than a stye,
sunglasses out so give it yer best pout.
Do not be seen lass without a glass, ya ner do better than a pint a stout.

You may laugh and grin,
will go down better with a glass of gin.
Summer is here or very near,
time to step it up a gear.

Holidays in mind as our children un wined.
Six weeks off school brings in the golden rule:
Do not show me up by being a tool,
as adults we are supposed to be cool
do not leave your knitted swimsuits behind in the pool.

We British enjoy a picnic,
don't forget our lovely pork pie,
cause if it rains
that's mud in yer eye.

Sport is never far from our minds,
anyone for cricket my yer on a sticky wicket.
Now tennis can be a bit of a racket especially if you just cant hack it.

Whatever it is that makes you happy
keep smiling and don't get snappy.
When in doubt remember your family and friends
are always on hand to help you out.
