

GOOD JAKES RESTAURANT

"MEET THE NEW OWNERS"

FELICIA FRANCO

Felicia proud alumna of Southern Lehigh, her journey in the restaurant industry spans nearly two decades, a testament to her enduring passion for this vibrant field. Despite exploring other avenues, she always found herself irresistibly drawn back to the dynamic world of food and hospitality. Her life partner, both in work and love, is Estuardo, and they been happily married for 11 years. Their love story began in the very industry they adore, and it has been enriched by the joy of raising their two wonderful boys, aged 4 and 2. They also cherish their bond with Estuardo's lovely 17-year-old daughter.

ESTUARDO FRANCO

Also know as Tato, his roots are deeply embedded in the vibrant culture of Guatemala, the place of his birth and upbringing. For nearly two decades, he has been immersed in the dynamic world of the restaurant industry, honing his culinary skills. His current profession is as an Iron Melter, but his heart truly lies in the art of creating delectable dishes. Above all, he hold family values close to his heart and makes it a point to reconnect with his loved ones in Guatemala on an annual basis. Cooking and family are the two ingredients that make up the recipe of his life.

VANESSA KERN

Vanessa is a proud alumna of Northampton Area High School, she has dedicated over a decade of her life to the restaurant industry. Her journey began at the age of 16, and since then, she's never looked back. The joy of serving people and the thrill of interacting with diverse individuals have always been the highlights of her career in this vibrant industry. Family is her anchor amidst this bustling life. She and her husband are blessed with three wonderful children. Their eldest son is 10, their middle child, another charming boy, is 7, and their youngest, a delightful girl, is 3. Interestingly, the restaurant business is not just her profession, but also where her love story began. She and her husband first crossed paths amidst the hustle and bustle of a restaurant. It's been an incredible journey so far, and she looks forward to what the future holds.
