

High Society

Verse 1

D G
Just dig that scenery floating by
A7 D
We're now approaching Newport, Rhode I
D Em
We've been, for years, in Variety
A7 [STOP]
But holly Knickerbocker, now we're going to be

Chorus

D
In high, high
Em
High so-ci
A7 D
High society

Verse 2

D G
I wanna play for my former pal
A7 D
He runs the local jazz festival
D Em
His name is Dexter and he's good news
A7 [STOP]
But something kind of tells me that he's nursing the blues

Chorus

D
In high, high
Em
High so-ci

A7 D
High society – Scooby dooby dooby

D
In high, high
Em
High so-ci
A7 D
High society

Verse 3

D G
He's got the blues 'cause his wife, alas
A7 D
Thought writing songs was beneath his class
D Em
But writing songs he'd not stop, of course
A7 [STOP]
And so she flew to Vegas for a quickie
divorce

Chorus

D
In high, high
Em
High so-ci
A7 D
High society
D
In high, high
Em
High so-ci
A7 D
High society

Verse 4

D G
To make him sadder, his former wife
A7 D
Begins tomorrow a brand new life
D Em
She started lately a new affair
A7 [STOP]
And now the silly chick is gonna marry
a square

Chorus

D
High, high
Em
High so-ci
A7 D
High society

Verse 5

D G
But, Brother Dexter, just trust your Satch
A7 D
To stop that wedding and kill that match
D Em
I'll toot my trumpet to start the fun
B
And play in such a way that she'll come back to you, son

Closing Chorus

D
In high, high
Em
High so-ci
A7 D
High society

D
In high, high
Em
High so-ci

[SLOWLY]
