Verse 1

A<sup>7</sup> D G
So now I'll sing to you, about a maiden fair,
I met the other evening in the corner of the square.
D G
She had a dark and roving eye, She was a charming ro-ver,
G A G A D
And we rode all night, in the pale moon-light away down to La-mor-na

(Chorus)

A<sup>7</sup> D G
Twas down in Al-bert Square, I never shall for-get,
A D
Her eyes they shone like dia-monds and the ev-ening it was wet, (wet, wet).
D G
Her hair hung down in curls, She was a charm-ing rover,
A<sup>7</sup>
And we rode all night in the pale moonlight,
D
A-way down to La-mor-na

Verse 2

A<sup>7</sup> D G
As we got in the cab I asked her for her name,
When she ga-ve it to me, well mine it was the sa-me
D G
So I lifted up her veil, for her face was covered over,
A G A
To my sur-prise it was my wife
D
I'd rode down to La-mor-na

(Repeat Chorus)

Verse 3

A<sup>7</sup> D G
She said, "I knowed 'ee well, I knowed 'ee all the while
I knowed 'ee in the dark and I did it for a lark (lark, lark)
G
And for that lark you'll pay, for the taking of my hon-our,
A G A D
You'll pay the fare, I do de-clare, away down to La-mor-na.
