Membership Mice for 2023

By Sharon Fenner

Our 2023 Membership mice are Mosser made in Georgia Blue.

We are offering them in glossy and hand-painted. The Glossy version is available for $30. The embellished version, designed and hand-painted by Trudy Mendenhall can be yours for $69. They are available to members current in their 2023 dues.

The 2023 Ed Tell Award.... By Millie Coty

The 2023 honored recipients of the Edward V. Tell Education Award are Claire and Alan Kauffung. Being avid Fenton collectors they willingly share their knowledge of Fenton with everyone, from answering questions on Facebook, to publishing a 61-page authorized biography titled, Dave Fetty, Fenton's King of Hearts. Thank you and Congratulations!

Convention 2023

By Stephen Embry

Glass ID panel: (L to R) Max Blackmore, Anne Blackmore, Nancy and George Fenton

Stephen gave a great seminar on Fenton look-A-Likes.

Anne Greenway: Annual Meeting door prize for a First Time attendee.

Jeremy Cook: Annual Meeting door prize for a veteran attendee.

NFGS Exclusive Convention Glass

By Sharon Fenner

Convention attendees got a 'sneak peek' at this Mosser-made Cobalt satin 'Patriotic' Alley Cat hand-painted by former Fenton Artist Karen Easton. It will go on sale on October 16, 2023, for $185.00. It will be available on a first come, first serve basis, one per member household.

Pictured below is other exclusive glass first offered during our 2023 Convention. It is available at one per member household until November 1, 2023. Glass remaining after that date will be available in limited quantities.

Frank Workman Lighted Globes

Mr. Workman created these Globes at Mosser Glass Company. The base and an LED battery-operated light is included for $129.00.

At left is a collection of the globes unlit in normal indoor lighting.

Below left is a lit globe in natural indoor lighting, and right is a lighted example in a darkened room.

First is the Blue/Gold combination.

The middle row is the Gold (orange) w/Spots

The last row is the Brown / Tan version.

David Fetty Blown Bears

Dave created these blown 5151 bears while working at Henderson Hall near Williamstown, WV. He used a modified Fenton mould for this project. Each will come with a hang tag.

At right is the Speckled version of the bears, with multi-colored frit on Crystal.

Below right is the 'Swirl' bear made with yellow glass rolled in multi-color frit.

They are available for $117.00 each.

John Fenton 'Big Bottom' Cats

How cute are they? And, their eyes GLOW!!!

Made at Fenton Collectible's Studio in Republic, MO, Ann and John have created this line of 'Big Bottom' critters. Each is a OOK!

They are available for $110.00 each.

We have Pink/Purple/White Swirl Cats and Grey/White Tuxedo Cats.

Right: Karnak Red bowl drilled for a lampshade.

Bottom right: Blue Carnival glass "Bullseye and Beads" vase remarkable in two ways: it's squatty and there are no 'Beads'.
